CASHIER LOST ON WAY TO HIS WORK

Mysterious Disappearance of Geo. M. Adler, Well Known Berkeley Accountant.

Last Seen Near Ferry Building and Relatives Offer Reward for Information.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—After a search in every part of this city and Alameda county, the relatives of George Martin Adler, 47 years old, an artist, of 524 Sixty-third street, Oakland, this morning sent circulars broadcast throughout the Pacific coast, offering a $100 reward for information regarding him.

The circumstances of Adler's disappearance are exceedingly mysterious, and the fact that he had just begun to regain his old cheerfulness after a year's suffering, and had taken a responsible position in this city only three days before, adds to the puzzle which the police are attempting to solve.

A year ago Adler underwent a grave operation which left him with an open wound on his back. He has since been under the constant care of physicians, and unable to work steadily. Several weeks ago he began to feel better, and his brother-in-law, Saul Wagner, of Magnier Brothers, 419 Jackson street, obtained for him the position of cashier with the Harlow-Brice Company of this city. Adler had been at work but three days when he disappeared.

Last Thursday morning Adler took an early Key Route ferry train from the Alcatraz avenue station, Berkeley, and was last seen walking along East street toward the ferry building.

Adler has a wife, who is a trained nurse, and a son, living in Los Angeles.

SISTER FEARS WORST.

Unable to account in any manner for her brother's disappearance, Mrs. Saul Wagner can give no assistance to the police and detectives in the search which has been diligently carried on for a

Miss Hoover Demands That Amount From Balshazzar Holler

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Balshazzar Holler, reputed to be a wealthy property owner of San Jose, was made defendant in a suit for breach of promise and for services, begun here this morning by Gertrude Hoover, also of the Garden City.

According to the allegations in the complaint, which was placed on the secret file, Miss Hoover has been attending to Holler's business affairs since 1900, has been his "business agent, manager, nurse, and amanuensis" since that time. She avers that he promised to pay her $30,000 for her services, and that repeatedly during her employment begged her to marry him. She finally consented, and then claims that his affections cooled and that he refused to allow the ceremony to be performed, putting her off from time to time and giving her a final no last May.

For this alleged breach of promise Miss Hoover wants $30,000, and for her services the $30,000 she was promised, as she claims. She has levied an attachment on Holler's paternal home in Santa Clara pending a disposition of the litigation.

REWEDES WIFE AFTER TEN YEARS

George W. Downing and His Spouse Brought Together by Son.

Divorced in San Francisco a Decade Ago, They Now Bridge Gulf.

BERKELEY, May 18.—"Yes, I have married my wife, and have the receipt with me," admitted George W. Downing, a well-known Berkeley real estate man, this morning.

The admission was made to close friends who hadn't previously been let in on the secret, but who had read in the list of marriage licenses issued that Downing had obtained a permit to wed Mrs. Mary Downing.

Unattended by friends or relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Downing, who were divorced in San Francisco ten years ago, were quietly re-married yesterday afternoon in the office of an Oakland justice of the peace.

WANTS A DECADE.

Cupid, put to route by marital differences which are declared to have been created by relatives, waited a decade to reunite two persons who had never differed widely, and who now smile through their tears in recalling the separation.

The reconciliation which terminated so happily yesterday was brought about through the affectionate activities of a son, who shared his love between the unhappy parents.

As Roscoe Downing, who will graduate this spring from Mount Tamalpais Military Academy, grew up, he felt more deeply each year that an unnecessary gulf separated his father, with whom he has lived since the divorce, when not absent from school, and his mother, whom he saw but occasionally.

LIVED IN RENO.

Mrs. Downing has resided for the last year in Reno, Nev., and prior to that time her home was in San Francisco. Mrs. Downing, who is now 18, and a sister of both father and mother, went to Reno nearly a year ago to visit Mrs. Downing. There he paved the way for the reuniting of the couple, who long since realized that they had made a mistake.

Before her first marriage Mrs. Downing was Miss Mary Mitchell. She is a niece of Robert Day, a prominent San Francisco business man, and a sister of Mrs. Josephine Rathbone of 475 Forty-first street, Oakland, a Mrs. Mattie Holmes of San Francisco, and Mrs. Shelton Clark of Fresno. Mrs. Downing's parents are not living.

Downing is a member of the firm of Downing & Allison, real estate brokers, with offices in the Studio building in this city. He is also associated with the Mason-McDuffie firm. The Downings today took up their residence in local apartments.

The property has been improved and is used for various mercantile and industrial purposes.

The building was formerly the Asbury M. E. church and was remodeled a number of years ago. The consideration has been kept secret.

The property has a frontage of 160 feet on Clay, by sixty feet on Sixteenth street.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER STOCK YARDS

Two Blocks of Buildings in the South End of Enclosure Destroyed.

One Thousand Sheep Burn; Horses Stampede Through Narrow Streets.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 18.—One thousand sheep were burned to death in a fire that broke out in the sheep pens at the Kansas City stockyards early this afternoon. Two horse and mule barns were destroyed and other property badly damaged before the flames were gotten under control. No estimate of the loss is possible at this time.

Thousands of persons gathered in the narrow streets in the vicinity of the fire, and though their lives were constantly endangered by the stampeding of the liberated stock, among which were thousands of horses and mules, they maintained their position until forced to vacate by the police.

The flames, driven before a high wind, threatened for a time to envelop the entire stockade, but were finally confined to the south end of the yard.

Fanned by the increasing wind, the fire soon spread to the immense horse and mule barns, wherein were stabled many thousands of animals. An attempt was made to move them before the flames reached the building, but so rapidly did the fire gain headway it was found impossible to do so and they were liberated in a bunch.

Panicked, they dashed wildly through the narrow streets, congested with people, and it is remarkable that no one was injured.

Shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon the fire was apparently under control. At that time one entire block of sheep pens and a barn within the enclosure again burst forth and were soon beyond again. Before subdued the fire had swept past Nineteenth street and had destroyed more than two blocks of buildings.

Sparks from the blazing sheep pens set fire to the Ward school house at Fourteenth and Liberty streets, wherein were many small children. The school was dismissed immediately and the little ones taken to a place of safety. The teachers then returned and helped fight the flames.

Mrs. Landsberg Hovering Between Life and Death

ALAMEDA, May 18.—Still hovering between life and death in a semi-conscious condition since the finding of the body of her son, Guy Landsberg in the bay five weeks ago, Mrs. George Landsberg's reason is feared by attending physicians. The stricken mother does not yet realize the tragedy and calls repeatedly for her son. For two weeks Mrs. Landsberg was kept in suspense over the mysterious disappearance of her son on the night of March 27, during which time detectives and friends sought the youth in Chinese opium dens, the resorts on Pacific street and on vessels leaving port. When the finding of his body was broken to her, she lapsed into unconsciousness, and has only had short periods of a normal condition since that time.

Miss Leslie Grieg, the fiancée of young Landsberg, has returned from Los Angeles where she went with her mother, Mrs. James Grieg, after the Landsberg funeral. Miss Grieg wears deep mourning. The shock caused by the tragic death of the young real estate broker to whom the young society girl became engaged when they were students at the local high school, completely shattered her nervous system and she was on the verge of a collapse when she was taken south by her mother. Miss Grieg is slightly improved.

San Francisco Woman Vanishes Without Word

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Leaving her home without a word, Mrs. Vanle Bowman has vanished from the family residence, 635 Bellevue avenue, in this city. Her husband, G. Bowman, a clerk in one of the branch postoffices, together with his friends, has searched high and low for her, but without success, and has asked the police to co-operate in an effort to find her. On Monday when he arrived home, Bowman first discovered his wife missing, and learned the next day that she had been seen with a woman companion on the street.

"We have had no quarrel of any kind and I cannot understand how she could have wanted to leave home," said the sorrowing husband this morning. The missing woman is described as 35 years old, five feet three inches tall, slim build and wore a blue suit with a long coat and green flowerpot hat tinged with blue.

Illinois Senate Wants Lorimer Case Reopened

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 18.—The Illinois Senate today adopted a resolution asking that the United States Senate re-open the Lorimer investigation. The action was taken following recommendation of the Republican steering committee of the senate. Efforts to extend the life of the committee to May 31 were defeated when the presiding officer ruled out of order the resolution calling for its extension. It was the plan of the Helms committee to give Senator Pemberton and Broderick a hearing on Illinois.

LA FOLLETTE IN LINE.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator La Follette today gave notice to the Senate that on Monday he would call up his resolution providing for a special committee to investigate charges growing out of the election of Senator Lorimer of Illinois.

Kahn's Denunciation of Recall Stirs the House

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Denouncing the recall feature of the Arizona constitution, Representative Kahn of California stirred the house this afternoon by declaring that Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, Madison, and Roosevelt would have been victims of such a system had it existed in their time. Washington, he said, would have been recalled for the Jay treaty, Lincoln during the dark days of 1862, and Roosevelt because of the Booker T. Washington dinner and Jefferson and Madison for various unpopular incidents.

PREPARING TO LEAVE JUAREZ

Will Be on His Way to City of Mexico Within Next 48 Hours

Judge Carbajal Announces His Intent to Journey to Same Point at Once

JUAREZ, Mex., May 18.—Provisional President Madero at 1:30 o'clock today announced through Dr. Vasquez Gomez that he would leave for Mexico City within forty-eight hours, to arrange to co-operate with the government in the restoration of peace in Mexico.

It is quite probable that much of the formality of the peace agreement now will be dispensed with, as Madero himself will see that the revolutionists' demands are put into effect at the capital. Before leaving an agreement will be effected by which Abraham Gonzales, Guadalupe Gonzales, Venustiano Carranza and Jose Guadalupe Madero immediately will become the provisional governors of the states of Chihuahua, Zacatecas, Coahuila and Sonora respectively, the others to be named later.

Judge Carbajal, the federal peace envoy, at 2 o'clock confirmed the fact that there would be no peace agreement signed here, but that all will be arranged in Mexico City. He also will leave in two or three days for the capital.

Slain Soldiers Pile Up High in Streets of Mexican City

CULIACAN, State of Sinaloa, via Nogales, Mexico, May 18.—The five days' armistice will avail little to abate conditions of warfare in the interior of the west coast of Mexico. News of the truce will not reach many of the districts before the expiration of the armistice, and not until the declaration of peace, and in some sections not until the forces of the Maderos and the government unite for the restoration of order, will normal conditions again obtain and the inhabitants return with safety to peaceful occupations.

The state of Sinaloa, of which Culiacan is the capital, is in a ferment of revolt. Through all of its large territory many bands of rebels, independent of control, are operating, and brigandage to a considerable extent seems almost an inevitable consequence of existing conditions.

Illustrative of the general conditions is the news which has just reached here of a twelve-day battle which has left the town of Corsala, in the mountains southeast of Culiacan, desolate. Corsala has a population of 7000 and is beyond the reach of the ordinary news.

DEAD STREW STREETS.

A force of rebels said to have numbered 1400 assaulted the town, garrisoned by 400 federals. The fighting continued with little intermission during the entire period. The federals dared not expose themselves and were given no opportunity to bury the dead which strewn the streets. The dead fell from roofs and barricades and lay bloating in the tropical sun, until finally, the federal commander marched out under a white flag.

If offered to surrender the town if the rebels would allow him to march out with the honors of war and guarantee not to destroy the government records, saying that he could fight until death were it not that the stretch of the unbursed dead had made life a horror to the residents. These conditions were accepted by the rebels. The reports indicate that this battle was the most sanguinary of the war.

600 AMERICANS THERE.

Culiacan is in momentary expectation of attack, its only hope being that the news of the armistice will reach the insurgents and will abide by the fact. This city of 25,000 people has in it six hundred Americans, many of them driven in from surrounding ranches. Its garrison numbers 400 only, some of them volunteers; but it is equipped with ten machine guns and is, therefore, able to put up a stout defense. Its seaport, Altate, 45 miles distant, was captured last Friday by the rebels who have not since permitted steamers to land there, thus cutting off all shipments from Guaymas to this city.

The rebels have also captured Ima-la, twelve miles east of Culiacan; Lermon, seventeen miles north, and San Lorenzo, forty miles south. The combined strength of these rebel bands is probably not far from 3000.

Another town captured by the rebels.

TEN THOUSAND DRUGGISTS Unite in Their Opinion Regarding a Certain Medicine.

Druggists should know better than anyone else the value of every medicine. Therefore, when over ten thousand recommend Vinol, the cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, over their own signatures as the greatest tonic, restorer of strength and strength-giver, and offer to return the purchase money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction, it must indicate that Vinol is a pretty reliable medicine.

We could publish columns of such testimonials as the following:

C. A. Potterfield, the leading druggist of Charleston, W. Va., says he used Vinol for every member of his family and has never been disappointed with the results.

Mr. J. P. Bradley, druggist, of New Brunswick, N. J., says, "Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine. I have proved it on personal experience."

The many years that Vinol has been on the market has served to strengthen its popularity, and proved by continued tests that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not build up your strength and give you an added interest in life. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

CAMORRIST SAYS PRESS IS HOSTILE

One of Defendants Admits to Being Thief Specialist, But Would Not Shed Blood.

VITERBO, Italy, May 18.—The Italian press was attacked today by Enrico Alfano, otherwise known as "Erricone," alleged leader of the Camorristi, when he asserted the newspapers had misrepresented him in their reports of the court proceedings, making statements that tended to inspire a feeling of hostility toward him on the part of the jurors. Alfano declared the press had sold itself to the enemies of the defendants.

Tomaso de Angelis was called for interrogation. This man was denounced, along with Gemaro Cuocolo and his wife, by Giacomo Ascarelli, who, it is alleged, conspired with the priest Vittozzi to involve these two in the crime in order to save Erricone and others, asserted to be the real assassins.

De Angelis confessed to being a thief and recounted a long series of thefts which he described as "affairs." He enumerated larcenies in which he had engaged in partnership with Cuocolo, and added: "I had resentment against Cuocolo. Moreover, if I should kill everyone who has injured me, I would have to slaughter half of Naples. Believe me, I am only a thief specialist, a specialist in false keys and breaking in. I never committed a crime of blood, having a feeling of repugnance to such deeds."

POSSE SCATTERS ENTHUSED 'FANS'

Proposed Boxing Match in the Hills Fails to Take Place.

NILES, May 18.—Pulling off a boxing match without the necessary permit from the authorities, even far away from any city and away up in the hills among the trees and rocks, is about as dangerous as it is in a thickly populated city. Last Sunday Constable Roderick of Niles received information that a contest was to take place between two aspirants for the lightweight championship, and gathering together a posse of his husky deputies made a raid on the fight camp, just in time to see both the contestants enter the ring.

When his appearance was noted a scuffle for hats and coats and other wearing apparel took place and spectators could be seen flying over the hills in all directions. One of the fighters left part of his clothes behind him in his hurry, and was forced to seek his home, covered by one of his companion's overcoat.

ASKS FOR LIGHT; KNOCKS HIM DOWN

Thug Gives Blow for Courtesy, and Then Robs His Victim.

Taking him off his guard by asking for a light for his cigarette a thug suddenly attacked Otto Witt of 559 Washington street, at an early hour this morning on Seventh street near Clay, striking him in the face and knocking out two teeth. The bandit subdued his victim by brutally beating him, and stole two cheap watches attached to a chain, and forty cents in change. The total loss is about $10.

Witt was on his way home shortly after midnight. At Seventh street, near Clay, he was approached by a well-dressed young man, who asked him for a match to light a cigarette. Witt reached into his pocket to find a match and the thug made a sudden attack upon him, slugging him in the jaw with his fists and knocking two teeth out. He finally knocked his victim down, searched his clothes hastily, and rushed away with the loot. A squad was notified by the police who were immediately notified, but the holdup man was not found.

Witt was taken to his home and given medical attention.

OAKLAND POLICE SEEK MISSING MAN

Hugo Jouvenal Believed to Be on His Way to German Province.

Fearing that his father, Hugo Jouvenal, has either met with foul play or driven by the impulse of acute nostalgia, has started out to make his way back to his ancestral home in Germany without giving any warning of his intention, Eugene Jouvenal has asked the police to aid him in finding the man. The man disappeared mysteriously last Monday about 2 o'clock in the afternoon from his home at 1639 Seventeenth avenue, and no trace of him has been discovered since that time.

The elder Jouvenal had $50 on his person when he disappeared, and the son believes that thieves may have gained knowledge of this fact and that they may have imprisoned his father somewhere, after taking his money.

At the same time it is possible that Jouvenal has left for Germany. He has talked persistently for months of his desire to visit the scenes of his childhood before he should die, and the craving to return to "Das Vaterland" had become so strong of late that it had grown into an obsession. That under the spell of this desire he may have purchased a ticket to carry him as far as possible on his way, trusting to good fortune for the rest is the fear of the son.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS ARRIVING IN OAKLAND

Annual Convention Is to Open in This City
Tonight

Although axes will be ground to-night, and for three days during the convention of the United Commercial Travelers, they will not be swung with sinister intent, for an unanimity of interest, concentration of interest and singleness of purpose will pervade the sessions. There will be politics, of course, but overshadowing all, and standing like a silent guardian of peace, is the all-important prospect of the national convention for central California in 1915.

Oakland will entertain the Knights of the Grip between business sessions. And this city's civic and commercial interests have ensured success to the local travelers, who have undertaken to extend to the delegates the hospitality of Oakland and Alameda county. Tonight at 8 o'clock the delegates will be called to order for the preliminary caucus. Los Angeles, headed by Oscar Kinne, will oppose the claims of the Sacramento delegation for the convention next year. J. H. Dolan, who is chairman of the northern delegation, expects the support of San Francisco and Oakland, in return for the assistance rendered last year.

Oakland and San Francisco councils will insist upon the retention of R. D. Holmes on the finance committee, and of George A. Morrill on the executive committee. The local travelers will also fight for the election of J. Enquist as supreme representative of the coast jurisdiction. Enquist is at present grand counselor.

It is expected that Grand Junior Counselor J. L. Krambach of Fresno will be endorsed by all parties for the higher position of grand counselor. According to precedent he will have no opposition, as it is merely the usual promotion.

The session of Friday at the Pythian Castle is the most important of all. A plan of campaign for gaining the national convention will be made. Former Governor George C. Pardee, Mayor Frank K. Mott and several others will address the delegates.

During Friday night the Zoro Guild of the Ancient Mystic Order of Bagmen of Bagdad will hold its annual high jinks, later in the evening entertaining all of the delegates at a smoker.

The triumph of the entertainment committee is the automobile excursion. Merchants and others interested in the success of the convention, have communicated with the Chamber of Commerce offering machines. The parade will start in front of the chamber headquarters and will parade through the streets of Oakland on Saturday morning. The machines will then travel out to Berkeley, where Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce Wells Drury will meet them and take them over the university grounds, the Northridge properties and various other points of interest.

At Hayward the various organizations have planned a royal reception. First, fruits will be distributed in souvenir baskets, together with pamphlets telling of the beautiful suburban district. The excursion will come to a termination at the Schleuter ranch where a barbecue has been planned.

On Saturday night the grand ball is to be held. The committee of women, composed of the members of the families of local delegates, will be in charge of the affair.

The following is the published program:

Thursday, May 18—Grand Council caucus, 8 p. m., Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Alice streets.

Friday, May 19, 10 a. m.—Grand Council session. All members of United Commercial Travelers admitted.

1 p. m.—Grand Council session.

2 p. m.—Idora park. Everything free to visiting ladies (coupons in scrip book).

7 p. m.—Ancient Order of Bagmen of Bagdad, ceremonial session, lodge room, Pythian Castle, Twelfth and Alice streets.

8 p. m.—Theatre for the visiting ladies. Choice of Orpheum, Ye Lib-Macdonough, Broadway (exchange scrip coupon at box office for reserved seat).

9 p. m.—Smoker for members of United Commercial Travelers at Murphy's hall, 14 Eleventh street. (Present scrip coupon for admittance.)

Saturday, May 20, 9 a. m.—Grand Council session.

10 a. m.—Automobile ride for visiting members and ladies. (Start from Chamber of Commerce, 12th and Franklin streets). Present scrip book for auto ride.

2 p. m.—Barbecue. Schleuter's park, San Lorenzo.

8 p. m.—Grand Ball at Maple hall for members of United Commercial Travelers and ladies. (Present scrip book for admittance.)

PLAN OF ENTERTAINMENT.

The automobile entertainment committee of the chamber of commerce, which is arranging to give a welcome to the delegates to the Grand Council of the United Commercial Travelers, has issued the following statement to the citizens of Oakland:

The Grand Council of the United Commercial Travelers will convene in Oakland tomorrow. This meeting will bring to Oakland a live, alert and active body of boosters—men who are on the road almost constantly and will carry to every part of the Pacific slope a good report of Oakland. It is up to Oakland to give them the right kind of impression.

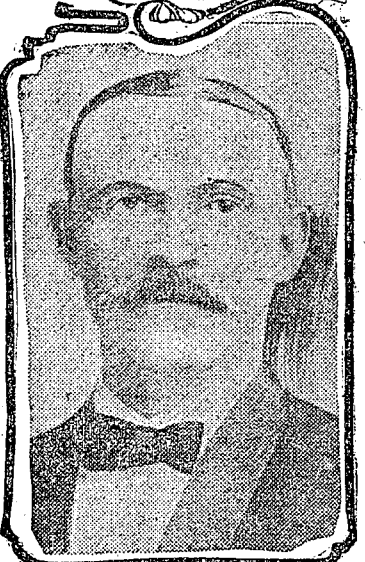

Last year San Diego entertained them, and the "Knights of the Grip" are still shouting the praises of the hospitality of that city. Oakland ought to make an equally good impression. Let the Oakland reception be made memorable, so that the city's visitors will talk about Oakland for the next twelve months.

"Berkeley, Hayward and San Leandro are prepared to make the best possible impression."

WILL BE HOSTS.

"The local council of the Commercial Travelers will be the hosts during the Oakland convention. The citizens of Oakland have been asked to make a cash contribution—the only appeal made being to the business community in the shape of supporting the preparation of a souvenir booklet. In addition to this, all that is asked is that the citizens of Oakland provide an automobile ride for the delegates and their friends during two hours, from 10 to 12 a. m., Saturday, conveying the visitors about Oakland and Berkeley and to San Leandro, where a great barbecue is to be held."

The guests will be dispatched from the rooms of the Oakland chamber of commerce, Twelfth and Franklin streets. Every citizen of Oakland who is willing to devote an automobile and two hours in extending hospitality to the Commercial Travelers is requested to report at the chamber

J. A. ENQUIST, grand counselor, who is being backed by Oakland for supreme representative to the national convention, and (lower) OSCAR F. KINNE, who is heading the Los Angeles fight for the next convention.

RUMORS OF ROW IN OAKLAND CLUB

Recent Election Said to Have Engendered Ill-feeling and Talk of Secession.

There are whispers in club circles of trouble in the Oakland club over the result of the last election and that the ill feeling aroused at that time has not subsided but is growing stronger, and that the club is in danger of disruption.

The nominating committee was composed of Mrs. Frances Gray, chairman; Mrs. L. P. Crane, Mrs. George W. Bunnell, Mrs. R. D. Holmes and Mrs. S. F. Mikel. Because of the possibility of secession in the membership all of these women are suffering from nervous disorders, it is declared.

It is said that those who are fostering insurgency believe they can induce nearly half the women to leave the club and become members of a new organization.

These rumors are vigorously denied by prominent members of the organization.

Club circles in general are watching the Oakland club affairs and speculation is rife as to the outcome.

3 GRAND ARMY DIVISIONS MADE

Radical Changes to Follow in General Arrangement of Military Posts.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—The army headquarters at Denver is the only one that will be abolished under the new order creating the three grand military divisions in the United States. Considerable changes, however, will be made in the boundary of the existing departments. The department of the east is extended to take in Ohio and Kentucky, which now form part of the Department of the Lakes.

The state of Louisiana is transferred from the Department of the Gulf to the Department of Texas. North and South Dakota, formerly in the Dakotas and Missouri, are transferred to the Department of the Lakes. New Mexico, Arizona and Utah are detached from the Department of Colorado and form part of the Department of California. Montana and Wyoming go from the Department of Dakota to the Department of Columbia.

The headquarters of the grand divisions will be at Governor's Island, New York, for the eastern division, Chicago for the central and San Francisco for the western division. The changes take effect July 1.

WILL TELL HOW AUTOS ARE MADE

Official of the New Motor Car
Enterprise to Talk Before
Board of Trade.

The guest of honor and principal speaker at tonight's meeting of the Fruitvale Board of Trade at 8220 East Fourteenth street will be A. J. Schram, vice-president and general manager of the California Motor Car Company, who will speak on the manufacture and sale of automobiles.

Since his arrival back from the East a few months ago Schram has been in demand as a speaker before numerous Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce gatherings. His knowledge of this industry makes him well fitted to talk on the subject.

The officers of the new motor car concern, include Schram and President Walter Sachs of San Francisco, who are more than satisfied with their choice of this city as a site for the new motor enterprise.

President Sachs stated today that the unsold stock of the company, which had been placed on the market in order to give the people of this county an opportunity to interest themselves financially in a movement which meant much to the city, was practically all sold and but little remained for tardy investors.

Already prospective automobile buyers have commenced inquiry of the kind of car to be manufactured, supporting the confident belief that once operations are under way more business will be written than can be taken care of.

Although not definitely settled, it is probable that the sales headquarters will be located in San Francisco, with a branch salesroom in this city. Country agents will be cared for from the office in San Francisco and the local trade from the salesroom in this city.

One thing the average man doesn't like to hear is the truth about himself.

ROTTON PILES FOUND
ALONG WATERFRONT

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Docks from the ferry building to Lombard street rotting to the core is the discovery, it is claimed, of the new harbor commission.

The commission has been making an inspection of the waterfront previous to the expenditure of the millions recently provided by bonding for the construction of new docks. One of the commissioners declares there is scarcely a foot of wharfing fit to remain standing between Lombard street and the ferry.

The result may be that the commission may have to spend a large share of the bond money for repairs instead of for new construction, as was planned.

INCOME TAX AND DIRECT PRIMARY VITAL---HEARST

Publisher Addresses Joint Assemblage of
Two Houses of the New York
Legislature

ALBANY, N. Y., May 18.—William Randolph Hearst last night addressed a joint assemblage of the two houses of the New York legislature in advocacy of the income tax resolution in an honest and effective direct primary law.

Mr. Hearst said that he believed he voiced the sentiments of at least a million voters of the Empire state. He urged the passage of the income tax resolution as a matter of elemental justice. Answering the declaration of John D. Rockefeller that "an income tax is confiscation," Mr. Hearst declared that in a sense all taxation is confiscation, but it is confiscation by the state to maintain the law; and of all taxation, he said that which favors least of confiscation is that which falls upon the ample incomes of the rich.

The taxation which favors most of confiscation, Mr. Hearst declared, is the taxation which falls upon the scant possessions of the poor.

HALL TAXED TO CAPACITY.
Mr. Hearst spoke in the senate chamber, which was filled far beyond its normal capacity, all the many doors of the big room being crowded with spectators, including senators, assemblymen and state officials.

The occasion was one without precedent in that this is the first time that a private citizen has been asked to address the legislature on pending legislation, the obsequies of measures for discussion being left entirely to the speaker.

Lieutenant-Governor Conway conducted Mr. Hearst to the president's desk, which had been draped with American flags. In his presentation remarks he said:

"It is needless to say that I deem it a privilege and a pleasure to preside at this large gathering of representative citizens from private life and distinguished public officials, come to listen to an address of one of our greatest and distinguished citizens of this state and of this nation."

"I do not introduce Mr. Hearst. He needs no introduction to the people of this state. I simply present to you William Randolph Hearst."

RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM.
Mr. Hearst was enthusiastically applauded as he rose to make his address, and often interrupted by applause throughout its delivery.

When it was concluded the lieutenant-governor thanked him heartily, in the names of those present and they rose from their seats and energetically endorsed Mr. Conway's words. The informal reception that followed the address continued for an hour or more.

Mr. Hearst said:

"I am greatly honored by the invitation that you have extended me to address you."

"I appreciate most highly the distinction you have conferred upon me."

"But I have not accepted your invitation merely for the honor it affords, but for the opportunity it offers."

URGES REFORM MEASURES.
"I have come before you to express for myself, and I believe for a million voters of this mighty state, the hope that this legislature will crown its commendable career by passing the income tax resolution and an honest and effective direct primary law."

"These two questions were the dominant questions of the last campaign."

"They were in the minds of all men; they were in the platform of all parties; they were in the pledges of all candidates. They were and they are the main measures which this legislature was elected to transcribe into law."

"The obligations upon the legislature to make these measures law is two-fold; first, the obligation to carry out the expressed will of the people, and second, the obligation to perform an act which is essentially just and right and necessary."

"The income tax is a matter of elemental justice. The first principle and the only just principle of taxation is that a man shall pay in proportion to what he possesses and can afford."

"Taxation is merely an assessment to maintain the condition which make possible possession of property, the accumulation of wealth, the enjoyment of income."

"It is obvious that regular incomes can be earned because of the conditions created by organized society, just as property can be possessed in peace and wealth accumulated in safety because of these conditions."

"It is equally obvious, therefore, that it is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. PASSENGER ON ASIA TELLS OF WRECK

Chinese Pirates Boarded Craft
and All-Night Duel Followed.

Many Women Reached Shore
Clad in Their Nightgowns
Only.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 18.—Many thrilling incidents connected with the wreck of the Pacific Mail liner Asia at Finger Rocks April 25, were recounted by arrival on the steamer Chicago Maru, which reached port from the Orient today.

Timothy F. Healy, city editor of a San Francisco paper, said that a big fleet of Chinese junks, descended on the wreck and only a constant fusillade of revolver shots prevented the pirates from boarding the ship.

Captain Gaukroger, with others who remained on the wreck, were engaged in a regular battle with the Chinese pirates, who rushed the wreck despite the revolver fire, and came on board.

All night Captain Gaukroger and his men fought in the fog with the pirates who boarded the wreck, firing more than 500 rounds.

RATIONS SERVED.
Ashore in the hollow where the passengers landed a number of women were still in night attire and a tent of tarpaulins was put up to allow them to dress, and provisions were given out in rations.

The last boat to leave the wreck was captured by the pirates. It was a J. Cozens, first assistant engineer; Arthur Arundel, ballast tender; these Chinese and one Japanese seaman and some mail. The sea had risen and the crew lost its way in the fog, from which a junk appeared and pursued the boat, swamping it. The Chinese came on board in the junk, where they were set upon and knocked down.

Cozens shot down two with his revolver and was then overpowered and all were trussed with ropes and thrown on the deck until night, when they were taken ashore by the pirates. Cozens made a deal to be taken off to the America Maru, promising a reward of $300. The Chinese, however, took his money and put him back on the wreck.

The following passengers who were on the Asia arrived on the Chicago Maru and will proceed to San Francisco: T. F. Healy, William Bruno, Mrs. A. C. Crawford, F. Ledue, Mrs. Mackay, P. Rangner, Mrs. F. Lark, Mrs. C. H. Lark, C. N. Ems, Miss F. Hedstrom, F. C. Lane, W. H. McMahon, Mrs. C. Shaw, Miss H. Clark, Miss Albert, Clark, W. A. Farmer, C. A. Hendry, Rev. J. D. Mackay, Miss M. GOBURN ON STAND IN GRAFT CASE

Tells of Plot That Led to the Arrest of Alleged Boudlers.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The eavesdropping episode at Pescadero when the trap was laid for the capturing of alleged hoodlums in San Mateo county, was gone into at some length before Judge Cabaniss today, during the trial of Daniel E. Blackburn, Carl Coburn, who is accused of conspiracy in connection with the affair, was cross-examined by Attorney Coughlan for the defense. He was asked if he had been promised immunity and replied positively in the negative.

Later, however, it was brought out that his own attorney had told him that he thought he would be let off easy, although he had no official assurance to that effect.

When counsel inquired why he had "peached" on his companions, he said he wanted the authorities to know the truth. He admitted that he had been furnished a bodyguard by the district attorney following his revelations.

Attorney William S. Cobb thereupon told of the meeting between Blackburn and Coburn in the latter's store in Pescadero, when Coburn had incidentally pushed a hole in the paper on the wall so that those outside could identify Blackburn.

Witness said that Blackburn had in his hearing promised Coburn half of the money if he would help him in the case of that might be forthcoming, and had also spoken of possibly opening a gambling house in the county.

A musical and literary program, arranged by a special committee, furnished the diversion and at the close of the entertainment dancing was enjoyed.

The receiving party included Joseph Kleitz, Dave Pantaky, Ernest Elenberg, J. Schoenfeld and Edward Shary, who were assisted by members of the headquarters and membership committee.

TELEGRAM GIVES NEWS OF MURDER OF MINER

During a fight with a Mexican employed at his mine, Cornelius J. E. Buermie, a wealthy mine owner of Herradura, Mexico, was shot and killed on May 5. This information was received in a telegram yesterday afternoon to E. A. Ear of Berkeley, a distant relative of Buermie.

The telegram was sent from Ojo Caliente, the nearest telegraph office to Herradura, by W. B. McNichols, Buermie's partner.

The telegram contained no details of the shooting, merely stating that Buermie and the Mexican had quarreled over supplies for the mine and the Mexican had shot Buermie in the back. Buermie died a few hours later and was buried at Herradura.

ADVISED HIM TO SWALLOW POISON

Dr. Edward M. Weiss Declares That Wife Was Cruel.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—A variety of charges of a more or less sensational nature are made by Dr. Edward M. Weiss, a physician and surgeon of this city, with offices at 2456 Clay street, which this morning obtained a divorce from Superior Judge Cabaniss. The wife, Margaret W. Weiss, offered no determined opposition in court, but in a cross-complaint, took occasion to deny all of the allegations of her spouse, and to present a few accusations on her own account.

According to Weiss, his wife has made life a burden to him and told him on one occasion that he was going to poison her. He said she had taken a dose of arsenic. Again, he claims, she said he had made a mistake in marrying her. One day, according to the doctor, she attempted to hit him with a poker and a chair and finally scratched his hand. Among other epithets which she used, according to the doctor, were "pauper" and "taxi."

In her cross-complaint, Mrs. Weiss affirms that although the couple were married December 23, 1895, and had two children, Edward, now aged 16, and Margaret, aged 14, they had never openly lived as man and wife, and that she had been "poached" on by her husband, who asserted that his family would look down upon him if it were known that he had married a Christian.

Despite this answer and cross-complaint, the wife did not appear in court and on the verdict of the jury, Dr. Weiss and his wife were divorced in favor of the physician, who is quite well known in Jewish circles.

VICTIM OF ROBBER

PROVES GOOD SLEUTH

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—George Anderson, who was robbed of all his valuables in a house at 5 Jackson street Tuesday night, has been on a still hunt for the culprits and has been doing some detective work on his own account. He pointed out to Policeman Munn a man who gave the name of Donale O'Callahan, charging him with being one of the offenders.

O'Callahan was searched and a razor found on his person was identified by Anderson as his. The man was booked for robbery at the Harbor station.

A Reformer on His Travels.

Chester H. Rowell has been exhibiting himself to the admiring and awe-struck east as the Atlas of the Uplift in California, the Hercules who has cleaned the Augean stables of politics and slain the hydra-headed monster of monopoly control and political corruption. If he does not measure up to expectation, he is at least worth the price of admission—which is nothing.

Mr. Rowell is nothing if not modest. His honesty, which is superlative, is only second to his modesty, which is of such a high quality that Mr. Rowell is forced to prostrate himself before it and acknowledge that it is the best ever. In the national capital he was interviewed by a reporter for the Washington Post and blew his honest trumpet with the loud resonant blast which has become so familiar in this State. He said his paper had published the first editorial demanding Taft's nomination, and remarked with the complacency for which he is renowned that he and his associates, insurgents, forced the Republican organization in California to support Taft.

Mr. Rowell's memory has been sadly affected by his modesty and his honesty, which have combined to blur in his mind the record of the past. When the Taft movement started in this State, Mr. Rowell denounced it as a conspiracy against that great and good man Roosevelt. He declared that the exigencies of the hour demanded another term for the hero of San Juan Hill, and with ululant vociferation insisted that California should send to Chicago a delegation pledged to Roosevelt. In this demand he was joined by E. T. Earl in the Los Angeles Express, George C. Pardee in the Oakland Enquirer and a few other uplifters of minor degree. When he finally became convinced that Roosevelt was in earnest about Taft being nominated to succeed him, Mr. Rowell reluctantly joined the Taft procession and tried to climb in the band wagon. He wanted to go as a delegate to the Chicago convention, but happened to be too well known in the Sixth District. He was dropped over the tail-gate and the wagon drove on. Ever since Mr. Rowell has been convinced that Taft is in the hands of men who are not to be trusted. He still regards the President as a good man gone wrong, surrounded by miasmatic influences and under subjection to the forces of evil. We quote from the Post interview:

"Why are the Republicans of your organization against the President?" was a question handed to Rowell, who replied: "The sentiment of the dominant Republican organization in California is against President Taft, because his affiliations have been with people we do not trust, and he has been estranged from those we do trust."

After he had modestly stated that he was the little David of the Taft movement in California and had bullied the regular organization into doing the right thing, he was again asked why he and his organization were against Taft. Here is his reply:

"Because the present sentiment of the whole country, and especially of California, is radically progressive—and we spell the word progressive with a big capital 'P,' if you please. Let me add some enlightenment on the California Republican situation. We had a progressive movement in our State before the word 'progressive' got into the political dictionary, or was used in your eastern political conversations. Before you began referring to insurgents or progressives we had an organization within the Republican party of California designed to counteract the political power and domination of the Southern Pacific Railroad, which for years had controlled politics in our State. We organized the Republican Lincoln and Roosevelt League, and I had the honor of being its head."

There you have it in plain black and white. Rowell is against Taft because he is the head of an organization within the Republican party which began by calling itself the Lincoln-Roosevelt League and now styles itself progressive with a big "P." Doubtless it is. But Rowell did not explain that the change in the name indicates a change of allegiance. The name progressive has been adopted because Mr. Rowell and his associates are no longer in favor of Roosevelt's renomination. They want La Follette of Wisconsin. Roosevelt has not come through far enough to suit them. They still praise Roosevelt, but their hearts are with La Follette, and they are going to give La Follette the delegation from California if they can do so. If they cannot and see that Taft is going to win, they will jump in and swear they carried the State for him.

The following extract indicates Rowell's attitude toward Roosevelt:

"Do you still yearn for the Roosevelt leadership out your way?" was a question slipped in during the eloquence of the Fresno editor, who replied:

"Roosevelt was given an ovation all through the west. Your eastern newspapers failed to print much about it or do him justice. In Nevada the courts and schools closed to hear him, and the Governor proclaimed a legal holiday in his honor. In Frisco he made a political speech to 12,000 people. In Berkeley he delivered several lectures, and 10,000 people heard him each day. That indicated how popular he remains with us on the Pacific Coast. He is as popular now with us as at any time during his stay in the White House, but I am not predicting his return to political leadership."

In other words, Rowell's heart is no longer true to Poll. His dream for 1912 is a ticket reading La Follette and Rowell. Like the dolls' dressmaker in "Our Mutual Friend" it would be weak in the back and queer in the legs, but it would embody the bulk of the honesty and modesty the republic contains in these degenerate days. It would have the charm of novelty and be as vivacious as a pet coon.

Progress has not lost its momentum in this city. Oakland has got the habit of doing things and keeps on doing them. That is why the electors have decided to spend nearly $3,000,000 for new schools and an auditorium.

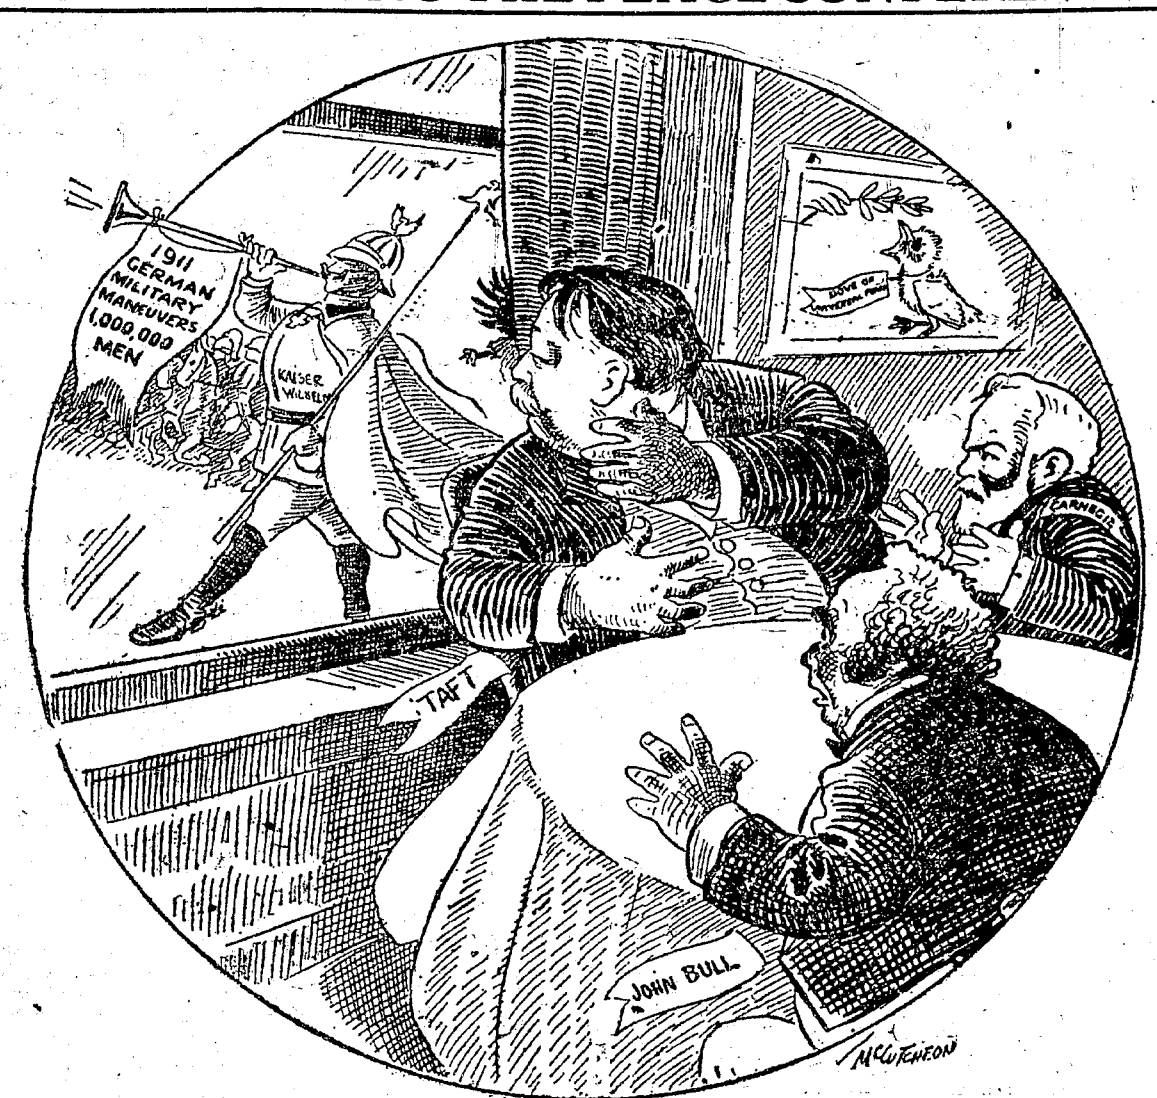

The United States Supreme Court appears to have accepted Colonel Roosevelt's dictum that there are good and bad trusts. The Colonel was applauded for drawing this distinction, but the Supreme Court is getting something quite different.

The Public Demands Energetic Action.

It is high time indeed that the Board of Public Works took steps to expedite the work of constructing the quay wall on the south harbor front. The work has been delayed an unconscionable length of time. The progress made is almost imperceptible. Although the contract was let many months ago, the contractors have only made a feeble show of operations. The work ought to be half done, but it has only begun and will not be completed in years at the present rate of progress.

The unaccountable procrastination has provoked the curiosity and aggravation of the public. In default of any explanation the delay is charged up to the Board of Public Works. That body let the contract and has supervision of the work. Hence it is the duty of the board to have the work of constructing the quay wall proceeded with reasonable diligence. It has not been prosecuted with any sort of diligence, or even a show of energy, since it began. It is gratifying to see that the board is taking steps to have the work expedited.

INTERRUPTING THE PEACE CONFERENCE

It is a general complaint that the improvements for which bonds are voted are allowed to drag along indefinitely after the money has been provided. The school buildings were an example that still exasperates the public mind. The water front improvements is another that threatens to rival the slow record made by the school department. It may also be mentioned that the erection of the new city hall has been delayed till public patience has been sorely tried. It was announced when the plans of the eastern architects were accepted that work would be begun last November. Excavating for the site has begun, but the progress made is in striking contrast to the speed developed by the Capwell Company on the adjoining lot. People cannot understand the difference. There should not be such a marked difference. Dilatory operations on the part of contractors are a reflection on the firmness and diligence of the Board of Public Works.

Let us have more speed, more ginger. It is time to get up steam and go ahead. The people have voted the money and are naturally anxious to get results.

Although Diaz said he would never resign till peace was restored he is going to resign to restore peace. The truth is that Diaz's race is run and his power gone. Had he retired from the Presidency a year ago instead of being a candidate for re-election, he would today be the beloved leader of his people, possessing an influence over the public mind that he has lost forever. Because he was old and feeble and his advisers distrusted, rebellion reared its head. He has seen his country torn by internal strife and is at last compelled to give up the office he refused to relinquish when he could have done so with honor. He outlived his time and his opportunity and could not let go at the psychological moment. Had he declined last year to be again a candidate he would have carried with him in his retirement the reverence and respect of the whole Mexican nation. But he clung to power and by doing so plunged the country in civil war; and in the end is forced to lay down his office under humiliating circumstances. His excuse for retaining the Presidency was a desire to preserve peace and order. It has filled the land with bloodshed and disorder. The power he would not yield has been forced from him, and he retires a beaten, broken man, hated by millions of his countrymen who hold him responsible for the strife that has wasted Mexico.

We have battleships to send cruising around the world, but none to station in Pacific waters. Do we build fleets for show or to guard the coasts of the United States?

Colonel Tim Spellacy follows Woodrow Wilson's lead in saying he does not believe in partisanship in politics. Like Governor Wilson Colonel Spellacy calls himself a Democrat, yet he disclaims partisanship. What nonsense! As long as there are parties, or even differences of opinion in politics, there will be partisanship. It cannot be otherwise. When men array themselves on opposite sides, whether in war or controversy, they become partisans. Partisanship will cease when the Millennium arrives—not before. Non-partisanship implies perfect impartiality. One can imagine the kind of impartiality to be expected of a pair of rock-ribbed Democrats.

"Money talks," remarks a sagacious contemporary. The saying is an old one, but it possesses an element of truth even in these progressive days. It may not have talked out loud in the Illinois Legislature, but it whispered convincingly when Lorimer was elected.

CONDENSED HOUSEKEEPING

Engaged couples who are wondering how to adjust their love's young dream of married bliss to the high cost of living may find a messenger of joy in the announcement that a new building on the South Side consists of one-room apartments, each ingeniously fitted with disappearing furniture so as to give all the comforts of a four or five-room flat. The bed disappears into a recess in the wall, ventilated from the outside; the kitchen and pantry appliances in like manner become invisible when not in use; the wardrobe has a similar change. By pressing a few buttons the apartment may be transformed into a kitchen, dining-room, parlor or bedroom, at will. During the day it has all the appearance of a comfortable living room. It is the dream of a tabloid living. The housekeeper with old-time notions of the need of plenty of room may be amazed at the notion of this sort of housekeeping, but it obviously will have many advantages. If the new building is a success we may look for an extension of the disappearing furniture idea. Its application to the flat of the future may solve the servant girl problem. The possibilities of the one-room flat would seem to be unlimited for a young couple—until the arrival of the baby. What could be done with the baby? Perhaps it also could be made to disappear in the wall and reappear at the pressing of a button. Chicago Record-Herald.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Indignation has been aroused in East Oakland owing to the inadequate fire protection in that vicinity. The Twenty-third Avenue Improvement Association has taken the matter in hand, and at a meeting to be held tonight action will be taken with reference to the hydrant and fire alarm supply. H. T. Smith and A. Magahan, judges in the contest offered by H. C. Capwell for the best essay written telling why people should trade in Oakland at the Lake House, have awarded the first prize of $15 to Miss Marie L. McDermott of Piedmont; second prize of $10 to Rosie O'Byrne, 728 Linden street, and third prize of $5 to Florence Persol, 638 Eighteenth street. Miss Hattie Ellwood of Mission San Jose received honorable mention.

The poolrooms may continue to operate in Oakland for the next year at least, for the ordinance drafted to prohibit them was killed by the council last night by a vote of 8 to 3, and an ordinance giving them the right to operate under certain conditions was passed by the same vote.

Those who will take part in a recital to be given under the direction of Mrs. Ailista Shea Langstroth for the benefit of Fabiola Hospital in Elito Hall Saturday evening are: Miss Georgie Loring, Miss Anita Kellogg, Miss Fortin, Miss Melgh Williams, Miss Ethel Hornick, Miss Mamie Barker, Miss Blanche Giddings, Miss Hattie Chapman and others.

Yesterday Mrs. De La Vere of 237 Hannah street, Watts Tract, heard the plaintive wail of a babe coming from a vacant house on the lot adjoining hers. She found in the house a baby girl two months old with a note reading as follows, pinned to her dress: "Please, Mrs. keep this. I don't want it, for I am off on the next boat. I hope God will send you luck with it!" Mrs. De La Vere is willing to keep the little one, there being no clew to its mother.

The new West Side racetrack in Chicago has been opened and the chief feature on the card for the first race today will be the Chicago Derby for 3-year-olds, value $2000 to the winner. The entries are Rosedale, Dundee, Silverado, Nero, Glennish and Brookwood.

T. W. Hargreaves, a carpenter, who resides at 512½ Twentieth street, was working this afternoon on a building on Nineteenth street when he fell from a scaffold a distance of twenty feet, but was not injured.

J. M. Carty has applied for letters of administration on the estate of Thomas F. Carty, deceased, valued at $5000, consisting of life insurance. The heirs are the two minor children of the deceased, Superintendent Shirk of the County Infirmary, believes that the institution received a little unjust criticism in the report of the recent grand jury. On the occasion of the jury's visit it happened that they discovered a little state meat, which was returned. Dr. Shirk states that it was the first time it had happened.

A Bit of Humor

"Who says there are no women humorists?" "I don't know. Why?" "My typewriter spells as funny as Artemus Ward in his palmist days."—Olmstedville Courier-Journal. "Had a puncture, my friend?" asked the passer, with an air of interest. The chauffeur looked up and swallowed his feelings with a huge gulp. "No, sir," he replied. "Yes," assented the Simple Mug, "but that is no reason why all the comedians should be sent to Congress."—Philadelphia Record.

MEN AND WOMEN

Not long ago Representative Billy Hughes of New Jersey was in Washington showing a party of his constituents the sight of the capital. In the group was a provincial old lady who seemed obsessed with the idea that New York and New Jersey made up most of the United States and got out all the laws. In the corridors of the War Department the party ran across a tall, tawny-haired man. "Who is that?" queried the old lady. "That's Bartlett of Nevada," explained Hughes. "Congressman Bartlett." "Goodness gracious!" she said. "You have 'em from everywhere, don't you?"—Popular Magazine.

General Jacob Slescher Coxe was entertaining a friend from Virginia the other night, and the friend to illustrate a point he made told the story of Sally, the negro maid, and ole mistress's duck. "Old Mrs. Hanover went away from home one day," said he, "and left the plantation house in charge of her two frisky, colored maids. They sent for a pair of male admirers, put on their best clothes, and to properly set forth the festive table killed one of ole mistress's ducks. They burned the head and feet and feathers in the stove. After supper that night the quartet went to a revival meeting in the neighborhood, and Sally got religion. "I see a-gwine to fine de army of de Lawd," she sang very loudly, marching up and down the aisle. When she passed the other maid the latter reached out and grabbed Sally by the skirt. "What about ole mistress's ducks?" she asked. "Drop dem skuits, niggah," said Sally, jerking away. "I so er gwine to fine de army of de Lawd." "Next time Sally paraded down the aisle the other maid seized her skirt again. 'You Sal,' said she, 'what you gwine to do er bout ole mistress's duck—you and you' army of de Lawd?' "G'wan away, niggah," said Sally, pulling herself free. 'Does you tink I'm gwine let er li' thing like er duck stan' between me and mah salvation?'—Cincinnati Times-Star.

STYLES AND THE TRADE

And now it seems that the Trade frowns upon the hobble and the harem skirts. But before we raise the voice of inconsiderate praise, let us view this decree with care. The Greeks bearing gifts were as nothing to a Trade advising on matters which affect its profit. Looking further into the matter of this tardy disapproval of the hobble and the harem styles, we find that the measures for our relief involve more cloth, large collars, deep cuffs, longer skirts. Contemporaneous with this announcement, light is thrown upon the situation by the "president of one of the large New England cotton mills," who complains of hard times, as follows: "People, in looking for the reasons of falling off in demand for manufactured cotton goods, seem to have lost sight of the fact that the present prevailing styles for women have resulted in an enormous curtailment in demand. "The narrow skirts worn out the consumption from 10 to 20 per cent, while the meagerness of women's undergarments to a still greater degree reduces the consumption of cotton goods." Thus we get down to brass tacks. As a matter of fact, the outcry against the hobble and harem skirts has been founded not so much upon the styles as upon the names given them. Hobble is ugly and harem suggests polygamy. The harem skirt, otherwise named and designed, as it is in fact designed, with becoming reference to the conventions, would call forth the praise of medical men and moralists. The hobble skirt did not prove to be what it was painted, and other recent innovations, the tube skirt, for example, have won the approval of the wearers from the standpoint of comfort, and of the nonwearers from the standpoint of the aesthetic. The real issue, therefore, is whether the Trade can put another one over on the Ultimate Consumer, though he be backed by the Goddess of Health and the Goddess of Beauty?—Chicago Tribune.

GERMANY'S IMPORTS

The most important product among the imports into Germany is cotton. In 1910 the receipts of the raw staple decreased, both in quantity and value. There were 402,428 tons of cotton received in 1910, of which 273,850 tons were from the United States, against 455,923 tons in 1909, of which 350,816 tons were of American origin. Wheat, the next important article of import, decreased in value $19,700,000 from 1909. Of the quantity imported in 1910, amounting to 2,343,742 tons, the United States furnished 168,584 tons, against 605,606 tons in 1909. The great bulk of wheat comes from European Russia. Owing to the lower price levels during 1910 and to the activity of electrical industries, the imports of copper increased $8,000,000 over 1909. Of the total copper receipts in 1910, amounting to 181,561 tons, 159,846 tons came from the United States. The receipts of refined petroleum amounted to 89,839 tons in 1910, an increase of 87,510 tons over 1909, while the receipts in 1910 of the receipts amounting to 146,450 tons against 128,813 tons in 1909. The principal source of Germany's supply of crude petroleum in 1910 was Dutch India, with 11,763 tons, although the United States supplied 3111 tons. The imports of refined petroleum from the United States in 1910 amounted to 787,168 tons, compared with 124,564 tons from Austria. The imports of land and oleomargarins showed a loss of $9,800,000 from 1909, the most notable decrease being land from the United States, the shipments falling from $9,114 tons in 1909 to 53,109 tons in 1910. On the other hand, the receipts of oleomargarine from the United States rose from 16,447 tons in 1909 to 17,282 tons in 1910.—Consular Reports. The Houston Post talks about "the bland meadow in which he stands, the silver stream that borders it, the many hued mountains that form the horizon far, and the overreaching dome of blue flecked with fleecy clouds that float like fairy boats in the sea of azure." To think that a red-headed widow could affect a man like that!—Charleston News and Courier. That Iowa doctor who, dying, left instructions with undertakers that his body should be wrapped in asbestos before burial, must have had dire forebodings.—Manchester Union.

VICTIM CAPTURES DAYLIGHT ROBBER

Nebraska Man Gives Chase to Accused Crook and Downs Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—A sensational daylight holdup in the North Beach section at 1 o'clock this afternoon culminated in the arrest of John Payton, who is booked at the city prison on a charge of robbery.

George Edwards of Red Cloud, Neb., was walking along Pacific street near Montgomery avenue when three men approached him, grabbed hold of him and began searching his pockets. They took $50 and a purse and a repairing tool. Edwards followed one of them and, catching up with him on Jackson street, seized him from behind.

The two struggled and the robber was thrown to the ground. The man who was the patrol wagon happened to pass and Policeman Dan Lyons took a hand in the fray. Payton was quickly subdued and taken to jail. The money and purse were not found on him.

PASTOR DEFENDS COLONEL'S SPEECH

Roosevelt in Address Attacked No One, Declares Minister.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 18.—Printed reports of Theodore Roosevelt's address before the Clerical Conference of the Federation of Churches here, were today characterized as "misleading," by Rev. S. E. Edwards, minister of the Episcopal church of St. James. This was a strictly private meeting of leading clergymen of all creeds. All present were put on their honor not to report for publication any portion of Colonel Roosevelt's address. Colonel Roosevelt made no attack on labor unions, made no reference to dynamite, did not attack any church or make any unfavorable comparisons of one church with another.

"The speaker's address for an hour dealt with the churches and public righteousness. It was most approvingly received."

President Fallieres has been elected an honorary member of the order along with the President of the United States, the Emperor of Germany, the King of Italy and Andrew Carnegie.

Lieutenant Von Schuchman saved the life of an apprentice seaman of the German school ship Stein in the harbor of New Orleans.

No Trust "Reasonable" Thinks Senator Gore

Would Provide for Jail Sentences for Those Who Form Combinations.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Jail sentences of from two to ten years for those found guilty of contracts or combinations in restraint of trade are provided in an amendment to the Sherman anti-trust law proposed today by Senator Gore of Oklahoma. The proposed amendment was called out by the ruling of the supreme court in the Standard Oil case. The amendment also would narrow the law so as to make it hold that no contract or combination of "whatever kind or character" should be adjudged to be "reasonable." It was referred to the committee on interstate commerce.

Police Judge Fines Latter $30 for Participation in the Affair.

Hunt ran to the woman and administered similar punishment to the mother, after rebuking her for crying and screaming on a charge of battery, and this morning admitted before Judge Mortimer Smith that he had given the woman a good slapping. He was found guilty and fined $30, with the alternative of spending 15 days in the city prison.

"MEANEST" THIEF ROBS WOMAN AT PRAYER

NEW YORK, May 18.—The police are looking for another "meanest thief." He is accused of taking from a poor widow, as she knelt in prayer in the shadows of the auditorium of St. Patrick's Cathedral, a bag containing $100, which represented the savings of months. She was on her way with the money to an undertaker to defray the funeral expenses of her only child.

KANSAS ROAD PLANS TO SPEND $24,000,000

TOPEKA, Kas., May 18.—The State Railroad board today granted the Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska Railroad Company permission to issue $24,000,000 in bonds, $5,000,000 to be spent in betterment of the road in Kansas. The board last week received the application of the company to issue $107,868,000 in bonds.

NEW OFFICIALS AS TO FUTURE ACTION

Mayor Mott Denies Rumor That Meeting of Commissioners Has Been Scheduled

The least concerned about the future action of the new city council, under the new charter, are the men who were elected to the several positions in that organization at the last municipal general election, Mayor Mott, City Engineer Turner, John Forrest, Harry S. Anderson and Councilman James C. McLaughlin. Hundreds of people are anxious to know how these officials propose to apportion the several commissions on that board, but thus far nothing has been done. This is especially true of those who are now holding positions in the several departments of the city and those who, for one reason or another, expect to be given positions when the new government shall be inaugurated under the charter recently approved.

There was a rumor on the streets today to the effect that the new governing board would hold a meeting Saturday night, but it was denied by Commissioner-elect Turner, who declared he had heard nothing about it and he did not believe that any steps as yet had been taken in that direction.

MOTT IN DENIAL

Mayor Mott declared also that there could possibly be no truth in the rumor for the reason that even he had spoken to no person about holding such a meeting and none of the commissioners had suggested it. With respect to other rumors that the council had decided as to the apportionment of commissions it would make, Turner declared that if any apportionment had been decided upon, it had been done without his knowledge or consent.

The mayor, however, stated that there would have to be a meeting held before long, but he could not state when that would be. He had been very busy since the last bond election and would be some time before he would be able to devote to this activity for some time, due in a measure to the opening, by the Board of Public Works, at its meeting, Monday next, of bids for the construction of the new city hall.

ANDERSON ABSENT

Commissioner-elect Anderson is absent from the city and is supposed to be in Los Angeles where, it is said, he is looking after private business. Commissioner-elect Forrester is also out of the city, and is said to be resting up after the efforts made by him during the campaign for the municipal election. There is no prospect of a meeting being held until all the members of the council can be present.

Until that time it can not be determined as to whether Forrester or Anderson is to be assigned to either the commission of finance or public health and public safety, with both of which their names have been connected by the public.

There is still uncertainty as to how many employees will be given positions, new and old, in the several departments of the city under the new charter. This will have to be determined by the council by an ordinance which, in all probability, will be the first measure of the kind to go on the book or ordinances. Then the incumbents will be appointed by the heads of the several city departments, subject, later, to the confirmation of the council sitting as a body.

GROSS SUPREME

Auditor Gross will be supreme in the matter of filling the places in his office, under the action of the civil service commission, but, before that body goes into power, if he intends to make any changes in his staff, either as deputy auditors or deputy city assessors, the changes will be made by the board of auditors and nine deputy city assessors.

The vote cast at the bond election last Tuesday will be canvassed by the city council at its meeting next Monday night. The next step in the matter of placing those bonds on the market will, according to City Clerk Thompson, be the part of the city council to order the city clerk to advertise for bids for the bonds, the advertisement to be published for five times and fixing a time at which the bonds will be sold. Each bid must not be less than par and accrued interest, for the reason that the city is prohibited from selling municipal bonds at less than par. The bonds are to be in serial form and to run for forty years, the interest being payable on the first of January and July, either in the office of the treasurer in this city or else in a bank in New York. They are to bear interest at 4 1/2 per cent. One-fourth of the bonds will mature on the first of January of each year, until all have matured.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO WOODROW WILSON

Dr. Little Opens Presbyterian Church Assembly With a Sermon.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 18.—A high tribute to Governor Wilson of New Jersey was given in the sermon delivered today by the Rev. Dr. Charles Little of Washburn, Ind., retiring moderator, opening the 133rd annual general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America. Referring to the visions entertained by some ministers for the betterment of mankind, Dr. Little said "the governor had heard a voice bidding him to take the larger vision and lead the commonwealth to a nobler citizenship, so that there might be presented to the individual fewer temptations and a better idea of life."

WIFE GETS DIVORCE FROM WALTER BROOKINS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 18.—Absolute divorce was granted here to Grace M. Brookins from Walter Brookins, the aviator, by Judge Woodmansee in the Court of Common Pleas. Brookins was granted a divorce from Walter Brookins, but this was later set aside and Mrs. Brookins brought the present suit.

MUMMIES GO BEGGING SO LADY RECALLS THEM

LONDON, May 18.—The mummies apparently a drug on the market, judging from the small price offered at today's sale of the treasures of the late Lady Menn. The most strenuous work of the auctioneer brought a bid of only $11,000 for the whole collection of Egyptian antiquities, though they included several mummies and coffins with dates ranging back to 3000 B. C. The antiquities were withdrawn and will be auctioned separately later.

APPEAL FOR AID FOR MILL HANDS

Cotton Strikers Through New Union Ask Assistance From Regular Labor Orders.

Under the direction of the Central Labor council, a public appeal in behalf of the 400 striking employees of the California Cotton Mills has been issued. It is claimed that a majority of them are children, illiterate and unable to otherwise care for themselves and the families depending upon their labors and further that the schedule proposed under the new law by the management of the mills will not enable them to earn as much as formerly.

It is asserted that as a temporary union has already been effected, the strikers are entitled to the assistance of organized labor. Labor organizations on the other side of the bay are appealed to for aid and support at a meeting in Castle hall, Twenty-third and Sixteenth avenue, yesterday afternoon.

P. J. Mackintosh has been elected head of the temporary union which seeks to be affiliated with the regular labor organizations. Assistance has already been given to the strikers by the Central Labor council and a benefit dance has been planned for Saturday night in the L. D. E. S. hall, headquarters of the Socialists, the hall having been donated them by that body.

Following is the appeal to the laboring men and the public read yesterday afternoon:

"The employees of the California Cotton Mills who went on strike May 8 are still out and the mills are practically shut down. Those who went out ranged in age from 16 to 30 years old. The sexes are about equally divided.

"Among the strikers, of which there are about 200 under 18 years of age, there is great illiteracy, many cannot read or write and some do not know their own age. There were some children working at the time of the strike under fourteen; one child who gives her age as 14 has been working there for three years.

"The wages paid at the time of the strike were from 75 cents a day to $2.25.

"Two years ago the workers were out in wages 10 per cent, and promised that when the mill had made good against the wages paid for the strike to the old scale. This has not been done.

"The workers have now an organization of 400, and have been pledged the support, moral and financial, of the Alameda County Central Labor council, and are hoping for the San Francisco unions to join them. In order to keep the children from being starved back into conditions which spell mental, moral and physical death to our future generations, the workers ask support from labor all over the state."

Disturbances in the vicinity of the mills have abated. It is believed that by the first of the week a larger force will be installed and in the meantime preparations are being made by the management to provide protection for the new workers.

The strikers claim that the heads of departments are overpaid in comparison to the wages paid to the strikers and claim that they have been subjected to much espionage by favorites of the management.

SEARCH FOR BACONIAN RELICS MAY BE GIVEN UP

CHEPSTOWN, England, May 18.—The workmen who have been engaged for months excavating in the mud of the river Wyke have now practically uncovered the timbers beneath which Dr. Orville W. Owens claims are buried Baconian relics.

The timbers form a bulkhead such as is usually erected to hold the foundation for bridge piers, the compartments being filled with broken rocks. Most of the rock has not been removed. While Dr. Owens is still optimistic of finding the remains of the lost colony, the excavators are beginning to feel that the search for Baconian relics may be given up.

FRANK S. ELLIOTT IN DANGEROUS CONDITION

PHILADELPHIA, May 18.—The condition of Frank S. Elliott, vice-president of the Philadelphia Nationals, who was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage at the game on the local grounds yesterday, is critical today and fears for his recovery are entertained.

Elliott was taken ill after the game with Cincinnati had been won by Philadelphia in the eleventh inning. He fell unconscious and remained in that condition at a hospital. Elliott is a well-known attorney.

COLLEGE CITY SCHOOL CHILDREN HAVE ESCAPE

BERKELEY, May 18.—Just before a large bus belonging to the Berkeley City School board was started with children from the Randolph school, the vehicle was drawn at high speed along eastern end of Derby street yesterday afternoon by a team of runaway horses. The breaking of a single tire on the road, caused the horses to become frightened and run westward on the thoroughfare and the driver, Rainey Lesay, was unable to check them before they had startled the residents for three blocks by their mad dash.

POLICY HOLDERS ARE BARRED FROM VOTING

NEW YORK, May 18.—The state insurance department today made public a decision by Attorney-General Carmody, declaring that the policyholders of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, under its present charter, have no right to vote for any of its directors at the annual December meeting. The attorney-general holds that an amendment to the charter of the Equitable whereby it was sought to permit policyholders to elect twenty-eight of its directors, and to allow the stockholders to choose the rest, is invalid since it interferes with the requests of stockholders to vote for all directors.

BRANDEIS VOLUNTEERS GOVERNMENT SERVICE

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Louis R. Brandeis, the Boston attorney who conducted the prosecution in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy and who volunteered to save $1,000,000 a day for the railroads of the country, will assist the house committee on the postoffice department to aid in the inquiry into that branch of the government service. His services will be voluntary.

CREMATION LEGALIZED BY PRUSSIAN DIET

BERLIN, May 18.—The Prussian diet today passed the second reading of the government's bill legalizing cremation. The clerical party bitterly opposed the legislation as giving countenance to an unchristian practice. The government's attitude in the matter shows a complete change of front from the opposition of the diet having been heretofore repeatedly opposed by those in power.

WHEELER'S TALK STIRS CRITICISM

Dr. H. N. Rowell Takes Exception to Remarks Concerning Elks.

BERKELEY, May 18.—Dr. Hubert N. Rowell, exalted ruler of the Berkeley Lodge of Elks, has taken exception to a statement made by Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, in his annual commencement address delivered yesterday.

The remarks to which Rowell and the Elks have taken exception and which Wheeler has quoted as saying are:

"You will be advised to join all sorts of fraternal societies, not alone for the purpose of friendly association inherent in these bodies, but with the clannish and sordid purpose of getting business or practice, or of being shielded from criticism, or of being advanced politically."

"You will hear the sacred relations of church membership proposed for like base use by such as bring the tables of the money-changers into the Temple court. These men are a peril to the State who make use of the Royal Arch and of the Elks in order to obtain public leadership or advancement in politics."

"I did not hear President Wheeler's address," said Dr. Rowell, "but many Elks did, and from the report I heartily endorse what he said concerning the too-frequent use of fraternal affiliations for business and political purposes."

"It exceedingly regret, however, that the president saw fit to discriminate in mentioning the B. P. O. Elks in this relation, and cannot understand his purpose in so doing."

Dr. Wheeler said this afternoon: "I do not condemn fraternal organizations, but simply their misuse in gaining advancement and power. Many of these orders are a great benefit to humanity and their name and influence should not be used for ulterior purposes."

MADAME BARRY ARRIVES TO CONFER WITH ATTORNEY

Well Known Public Reader Seeks Release From the Alleged Persecutions of Her Former Husband

After alleged further persecutions on the part of her former husband, J. H. Fitzpatrick, Madame Barry, daughter of W. H. Russell, until recently master mechanic at the Southern Pacific yards in this city, but lately removed to Tracy, where he holds the same position on the newly established division, has arrived here to consult with her attorneys in regard to the attitude of the man she claims first married her in order to promote his own welfare by acting as her manager. In the patronage that she received from engagements as a reader in the large cities of the country, she came from Carson City, Nev., where a few days ago her former husband appeared and claimed that she had enticed him into her room in a hotel and there, at the point of a pistol, compelled him to turn over to her certain letters that he held in his possession.

Driven to distraction, she says, by the enforced attentions of Fitzpatrick, and the tricks that he has resorted to in order to discredit her with theatrical managers, she has decided to throw out the matter, and with that purpose in view arrived here this morning. Today she is consulting with prominent attorneys in San Francisco, who declare that a plot against her has been completely unmasked.

Less than a year ago Madame Barry made the same sort of a fight against the allegations of Fitzpatrick who, when he was confronted with her determination not to give in to his demands, let his case drop for the time being.

WOMAN'S STATEMENT

Reiterating almost in detail the statement she made at that time, Madame Barry today set forth her case, together with the developments that have ensued since she last came into public notice when she alleges that Fitzpatrick attempted to ruin her career by linking her name with prominent Eastern politicians. Her statement in part is as follows:

"In the first place I never threatened my former husband with a pistol, but I did call on him at the Riverside Hotel in Reno to beg him to quit writing threatening letters to my father."

"I left Fitzpatrick because he was unable to earn a living for me. I supported him by my work as a reader, and I don't think he earned $10 for me while I was with him. He was not a bad man, but I don't think he was a good man. He was a man of more luxuries. Then I secured a divorce for cruelty and non-support and he had his day in court."

WORK IMPERILED

"Ever since he has been as anxious to see me fall as a bread-winner as he was before to have me keep the family pot boiling. He has written letters all over the country to theatrical managers from whom I was about to secure engagements, telling them that I was a former manager of mine and that I was not a drawing card; that I am a worthless character and would get up and break engagements without a word of warning."

"If I misrepresented the facts when he said that he saw me a week ago in Carson in company with Carver, I am often seen in Carver's company in Carson, but he happened to be out of town that day. Carver never registered at a hotel as my brother in Denver or any other place. He is not a blood relative of mine and never claimed to be. We are stepmother and sister. You can say that I am not engaged to marry Mr. Carver and have no idea of marrying him or any other man."

HEAR TESTIMONY IN RATE CASE

State Railroad Commission Takes Up San Joaquin Valley Charges.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—In the hearing before the State Railroad Commission in the San Joaquin valley rate case today the Los Angeles Jobbers' Association acting as intervenors, began the presentation of its testimony. F. R. Greaser of the association occupied the stand and his direct examination continued the session. The witness contended that the San Joaquin valley rates should be based entirely on mileage with the exception of the cost of the mountain haul between the valley and Los Angeles.

AVIATOR MASSON HERE FROM SOUTH

Noted Frenchman Will Fly in Oakland and Vicinity Sunday.

Didier Masson, who has been giving exhibition flights for the Mexican government, has arrived here from the scene of the revolution and will be seen Sunday flying from Fourth Avenue Heights, Oakland.

Masson was to have flown a week ago from the same place, but was held up at one of the border towns and could not get here.

Masson is not as well known here as he is in the southern part of the State, where he performed many feats of skill and daring.

On one occasion he made the trip from Los Angeles to San Bernardino, a distance of seventy-eight miles, for a Los Angeles paper in one hour and twenty-six minutes, distributing the paper as he traveled.

Masson will make two flights Sunday, one in the morning and one in the afternoon. In the intermission the same artist will drop in a parachute from a balloon.

KELLY GIVEN WEEK TO MAKE HIS DEFENSE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The case against S. Foster Kelly, accused of interfering with habeas corpus proceedings in connection with the kidnapping of the children of Mrs. Ivy May Henry, was continued the week by Judge Shortall today. The court denied a motion to dismiss made by the defense, and issued a subpoena for Attorney Hudson, special prosecutor, to be present at the next hearing.

The case against Mrs. Henry on a similar charge has already been dismissed.

TWO-ARRAIGNED ON CHARGE OF BURGLARY

Jose Marques and Jose Valencia were arraigned before Judge Mortimer Smith this morning on charges of burglary preferred by Boot & Cowes, a firm of contractors of 2304 Alameda avenue, Alameda, and held to answer after being given a preliminary examination. The bonds were fixed at $200 each. The two men are charged with having stolen carpenter's tools valued at $50 from a new house at Oak and Madison streets.

CASE THREATENS TO SHAKE ROYAL SKELETON

ST. PETERSBURG, May 18.—Colonel Sonjarjarsky, who has been closely connected with the Yalu concessions, and his stepson, formerly a captain in the Russian army, are on trial charged with having forged a will whereby they would be given vast estates of the half-witted Prince Ojinsky, godson of Emperor Nicholas, and a descendant of the house of Rurik. The case promises sensational developments.

WHEELER'S TALK STIRS CRITICISM

Dr. H. N. Rowell Takes Exception to Remarks Concerning Elks.

BERKELEY, May 18.—Dr. Hubert N. Rowell, exalted ruler of the Berkeley Lodge of Elks, has taken exception to a statement made by Benjamin Ide Wheeler, president of the University of California, in his annual commencement address delivered yesterday.

The remarks to which Rowell and the Elks have taken exception and which Wheeler has quoted as saying are:

"You will be advised to join all sorts of fraternal societies, not alone for the purpose of friendly association inherent in these bodies, but with the clannish and sordid purpose of getting business or practice, or of being shielded from criticism, or of being advanced politically."

"You will hear the sacred relations of church membership proposed for like base use by such as bring the tables of the money-changers into the Temple court. These men are a peril to the State who make use of the Royal Arch and of the Elks in order to obtain public leadership or advancement in politics."

"I did not hear President Wheeler's address," said Dr. Rowell, "but many Elks did, and from the report I heartily endorse what he said concerning the too-frequent use of fraternal affiliations for business and political purposes."

"It exceedingly regret, however, that the president saw fit to discriminate in mentioning the B. P. O. Elks in this relation, and cannot understand his purpose in so doing."

Dr. Wheeler said this afternoon: "I do not condemn fraternal organizations, but simply their misuse in gaining advancement and power. Many of these orders are a great benefit to humanity and their name and influence should not be used for ulterior purposes."

CONWAY'S MUSIC DRAWS OAKLAND'S PLEASURE-LOVERS

MRS. JOSEPH DUNFEE, soprano soloist with Conway's Band at Idora Park.

Out at Idora Park the band enthusiasts and music-lovers are taking delight in the daily afternoon and evening concerts now being rendered by Patrick Conway and his popular American band. Conway stands pre-eminent among the band directors in this country. There is no more popular bandmaster or organization today than "Pat" Conway and his American band. The fact is being proved every day at Idora Park. Since Conway began his engagement at the "park beautiful" last Saturday he has been confronted with weather that is anything but conducive to amusement park business. Despite this fact every concert has been attended by goodly sized and enthusiastic audiences. When a band, by its charm and interesting programs can make large audiences sit for three hours in the open air with the weather reminding one of winter, it is the real test of a first class musical organization. When the warm weather sets in Conway will have audiences which should tax the capacity of the massive amphitheatre.

Mrs. Joseph Dunfee, the vocalist with the band this season, has won a host of admirers with her excellent voice. She has strong, sweet soprano particularly adapted to band accompaniment. But few sopranos can sing successfully with the big bands, but Mrs. Dunfee is the exception to the rule.

A feature program this week will be played on Friday evening when Conway will render his first Wagnerian concert. This evening the program contains selections by Schubert, Strauss, Friedman, Plotow, Leonov, Mydleton, Schwarsenka and Thomas, besides many of the latest airs from the Broadway musical hits.

CROSSFIELD CRUEL DECLARES SPOUSE

The Wife of Bridge Company's Manager Applies to Court for Divorce.

After a year of marital discord, details of which are set forth in the wife's complaint, Adeline P. Raffetto Crossfield has instituted suit in the Superior Court for a divorce from Otto J. Crossfield, manager of the Thomson Bridge Company of San Francisco. The couple were married in this city in July, 1910, and Mrs. Crossfield accuses her husband of many acts of cruelty.

Mrs. Crossfield charges that although she would prepare and have meals ready for her husband at the proper hours he frequently neglected to go home for them and when he did return would refuse to explain to her why he had remained away. She charges that on one occasion while she and her husband were traveling from Lake Tahoe to Oakland in a Pullman sleeper Crossfield cursed her in the presence of other passengers.

SAYS HE STRUCK HER.

Then he struck Mrs. Crossfield in the face with his fist, the complaint charges. On another occasion, the wife says, Crossfield grabbed his wife and threw her violently against a door. As she recovered herself, the complaint sets forth, Crossfield seized her again and threw her against the wall of the staircase, striking her at the same time a stinging blow on the cheek with his fist.

Last February, Mrs. Crossfield states, Crossfield sent his wife to the home of her mother, on a ranch near Carson City, Nev., to recuperate from a recent illness, promising that upon her return he would provide a home for her in San Francisco. She remained in Nevada several weeks and finally, says she, received from Attorney James Alva Watt of San Francisco a letter on behalf of Crossfield, informing her that her husband would not live with her any longer and that a divorce was inevitable. She declares she was therefore instructed to proceed quietly for a divorce at the end of a year, on the ground of desertion. This notification was followed up by a notice to travel people in Carson City and Reno, Mrs. Crossfield states, to the effect that she had ceased to live with her husband and that he would no longer be responsible for her debts.

SCANDAL BREAKS IN WHEAT PIT

Deal in May Option Results in Action Against All "Corners."

CHICAGO, May 18.—Action was taken yesterday by the directors of the Chicago board of trade which is regarded as a knockout blow to grain manipulators in this market.

It came in the form of a resolution, adopted after a sharp fight, branding as "uncommercial and dishonorable conduct" the practice of marketing in other cities grain held in elevators here at prices lower than the relative price easily obtainable in Chicago.

The blow is aimed at the big wheat bulls who are now closing up their deal in the May option. What approaches closely to a serious scandal has grown out of this operation.

Conservative estimates place the amount that the bulls went "long" in May wheat at about 15,000,000 bushels. This was all bought in the pit.

Since May the shorts have been able to deliver about 4,000,000 bushels. The remaining 11,000,000 bushels was not obtainable and the shorts were compelled to come in and settle in cash with the bulls, the "paper" wheat, which they sold, but did not possess and could not deliver.

DRUGGISTS START HEALTHY DISPUTE

Legislative Committees Scored for Failure to Get Acts Passed.

SACRAMENTO, May 18.—The druggists attending the State Pharmaceutical association convention spent most of yesterday in scoring the members of the legislative committee from the association, which was directed to secure certain legislation before the last legislature, but failed. J. G. Munson, chairman of the legislative committee, was placed in hot water for a time during a fight on the floor of the convention.

The state druggists wanted jurisdiction under the pure drug law taken from the state board of health and given to the state board of pharmacy on the plea that trained pharmacists were needed for this work. They appointed a committee to secure this change from the state legislature, but the committee did not agree.

Munson presented a bill which the other members opposed, and it was killed. He was asked today to make an explanation for jumping the tracks. He said he was backed by the wholesale druggists. The report of the majority of the committee criticized Munson severely for his action, and C. B. Whilden of San Francisco charged Munson with breaking faith.

ITALIAN VILLA WILL REPLACE CROCKER HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—"Uplands," the beautiful old Crocker home in Hillsborough, which was erected a quarter of a century ago, is to be pulled down and a magnificent Italian villa is to be constructed in its place. If the present plans of Charles Templeton Crocker and his wife, formerly Miss Helene Irwin, are carried out on their return from Europe, the old English plan, upon which the residence was constructed, will be done away with and the entire place will be changed in accordance with the Italian style of architecture, of which Templeton Crocker has been an ardent admirer for several years.

CONTEST CLOSED, DECLARES OTIS

Los Angeles Newspaper Publisher Speaks at New York Meeting.

NEW YORK, May 18.—General Harrison Gray Otis, publisher of the Los Angeles Times, whose plant was damaged last October by an explosion, with a loss of twenty-one lives, was the guest of honor last night at the sixteenth annual banquet of the National Association of Manufacturers, which marked the close of the annual convention of manufacturers.

General Otis was greeted with the waving of small American silk flags by all the assemblage and the singing of the national anthem.

"May I say at the outset," began General Otis, "in order that my associates and my newspaper may be better understood, that our contest may be better understood, that the contest between us and trades unionism crossed years and years ago, with the defeat of the Typographical Union, which tried to crush us and our manhood. That body joined with the American Federation of Labor and since then the battle has been directly against us by the larger body.

"Finally came the effort to extinguish us and silence us by the use of dynamite, killing twenty-one faithful employees. But that did not end the battle, and the battle is not ended.

"Despite this immense list, despite the death of our gallant men, we are not fighting for ourselves, but for our fellows, the Constitution, its law, its rights and its guarantees, and for industrial freedom.

SYSTEM MENACED.

"The very system or government is menaced by organized labor. I stand with you for our common right for religious, political, personal and industrial liberty. We are for the law of the Constitution and for the laws passed by Congress; we are for the law as interpreted by the Supreme Court, although some times its interpretations do not please us. We are not for the law as laid down by trades unions in their lodges. We are not against trade unionism which keeps within the limit of the law.

"Nothing but evil follows the strike, the tie-up, the boycott and all forms of enforced idleness. Private labor pacts and conspiracies are no clearly lawless and anarchistic that people who love liberty ought to rise and end this madness of the hour, this era of violence."

TAFT SENDS THANKS FOR SAN JOSE FRUIT

SAN JOSE, May 18.—That the souvenirs of San Jose and Santa Clara valley, in the shape of fruits which were sent to the President by the local Chamber of Commerce when the special excursion of railroad conductors passed through San Jose some two weeks ago, have accomplished their object, was shown when Joseph T. Brooks, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, received a personal letter from President Taft. The letter follows and is self-explanatory:

"The White House, Washington, May 11, 1911.—My Dear Mr. Brooks: Through the kindness of the members of the Order of Railroad Conductors of California, I have received the souvenirs of the Santa Clara valley which the San Jose Chamber of Commerce was good enough to send me. Will you please convey to the Chamber of Commerce an expression of my cordial appreciation of and thanks for this courtesy. Sincerely yours,

Under the direction of Miss Alice Hunt, northern folk-dancers will be given Friday afternoon, and on Saturday the same company of graceful girls will interpret the Spanish dances.

ENTHUSE OVER BRITISH TREATY

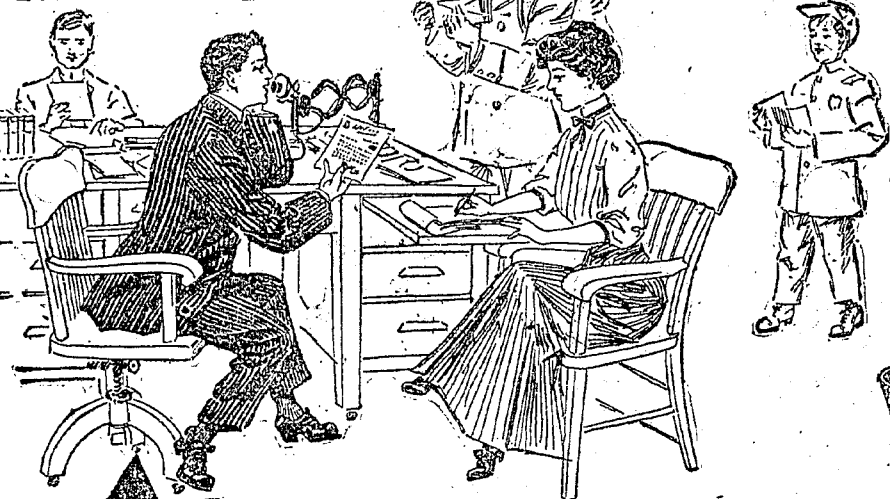

d'Estournelles and Carnegie See Great Things in Arbitration.

NEW YORK, May 18.—The announcement from Washington that the draft of the general arbitration treaty has been submitted to the British and French governments was received enthusiastically by Andrew Carnegie and Baron d'Estournelles de Constant and both issued statements expressing their approval.

Baron de Constant wrote:
"I do not know what my colleagues of the French parliament will decide to do with the fine proposition of President Taft, but I know what the representatives of France have done with their eminent American colleagues at The Hague conferences—they gave not only their word and their signatures, but their hearts as well to arbitration."

Andrew Carnegie added:
"That the French republic is embraced in the peace compact is welcome news. Of course, the two republics will not long stand apart. The details will no doubt be satisfactory to all parties and we are soon to find war a crime of the past."

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Oakland People.

Too many Oakland citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys. The following statement should convince every Oakland reader of their efficiency:

John F. Benedict, 915 C street, Hayward, Cal., says: "My back was so lame that I could scarcely get up or down and there were sharp pains over my kidneys. Often I suffered so severely that it was almost impossible for me to move. The kidney secretions were unnatural and passed so frequently that I was unable to rest well. Having Doan's Kidney Pills recommended to me, I began their use and they proved to be the best kidney medicine I had ever tried. During the past eight or ten years I have had no serious trouble from my kidneys, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Oakland to Have the Only Large Automobile Manufacturing Plant on the Pacific Coast

To Be the Center for the Manufacture and Distribution of the Most Important Home Product in California

WITHIN A FEW WEEKS THERE WILL BE ESTABLISHED IN OAKLAND ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES IN THE UNITED STATES. IT WILL MEAN THE ADDITION TO THE CITY OF HUNDREDS OF SKILLED EMPLOYEES AND HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS ANNUALLY TO THE GENERAL BUSINESS REVENUES.

HERE IS THE FIRST MODEL OF THE NEW OAKLAND HOME PRODUCT.

$1750, COMPLETELY EQUIPPED

The factory is to be located on High street and the S. P. railroad tracks, in Melrose. It is a two-story reinforced concrete steel frame building formerly used by the Oakland Cotton Mills and the floor space is approximately 50,000 square feet. Very little alteration is needed to make it ideal for the manufacture of automobiles.

At the present time California stands second in the use and purchase of automobiles, New York ranking first. Practically all of these automobiles are built in the East and shipped to this market. Manufacturing statistics show that California spends and sends to Eastern automobile manufacturers nearly $12,000,000 annually. Much of that can be kept at home and used to foster the trade that naturally belongs to this coast, through labor, house rents, material and supply houses generally.

The profits will no doubt be sufficient to keep the capital stock at a high premium.

The new corporation is known as The California Motor Car Company and is capitalized for $250,000, divided into that many shares at the par value of one dollar each. About one-half of that amount has already been subscribed, and from the interest already shown the balance will be taken up in a short time.

The men at the head of The California Motor Car Company are well and favorably known about the bay and are devoting their entire time and attention to the best interests of the corporation. As an investment the stock in this new manufacturing enterprise will earn surprisingly good dividends. It is not often that the general public is invited to invest in stock in automobile manufacturing and stock in old established companies is never offered for sale.

Investigate fully the opportunity that is offered you to become associated with one of the best paying manufacturing plants on the Pacific Coast, and if your investigation proves satisfactory make an early application for stock.

Subscriptions for stock will be received either at the Union Savings Bank, Oakland, the Bank of Fruitvale, or at the main office of The California Motor Car Company, Kohl building, San Francisco. Telephone Douglas 2749.

Permission has been given to use the following letter from the investigating committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce:

To the Board of Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce:

Your committee appointed to investigate the proposition of the establishment of a plant in Oakland by the California Motor Car Company, respectfully reports that we have given the matter careful consideration and are convinced of the reliability of the gentlemen interested, and of their determination to establish an industry here which will be of great benefit to Oakland, involving a large expenditure of money in the plant and the extensive employment of labor.

We believe that the establishment of a factory by the California Motor Car Company in Oakland will be the beginning of an important feature in the manufacture of motor cars and accessories, and feel that the undertaking is in the hands of men of financial responsibility and experience in the manufacturing line and is one which is worthy of the endorsement of the Board of Directors of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce as a most desirable enterprise to be secured to this city.

Very respectfully,

(Signed) C. J. HESEMAN, GEORGE E. RANDOLPH, GEORGE B. WADELL.

This Report Was Unanimously Adopted by the Board of Directors

Herrmann and his party will spend Monday in San Francisco.

FIRST RED ONIONS

BRING HIGH PRICES

STOCKTON, May 18.—The first large shipment of the famous red onions sent out from here each year took place yesterday, the growers receiving $2.30 a sack for as they could deliver. There is always a market for this vegetable, as it is not grown to any advantage in any other section. Consequently the gardeners reap a harvest in the five to six weeks in which the red onions can be produced. The Italian gardeners get from $400 to $500 an acre for their crop. The buyers say there will be about 500 cars produced in this section and, unless the market is glutted, most of the crop will bring from $1.75 to $2.25 per sack. At present from two to five carloads a day are being sent out, but inside of the next ten days the shipments will increase from ten to fifteen carloads, in addition to the shipments by water.

BIBLE FEDERATION HOLDS MEETING

Classes of Alameda County Talk Over Future Plans.

A meeting of the federation of adult Bible classes of Alameda county was held Tuesday evening at the Oakland Young Men's Christian Association building. A constitution was adopted and officers elected.

Gus Schneider, superintendent of the Sunday school of the Twenty-third-Avenue Baptist church, Oakland, was elected president of the new organization. Will Brown, of the First Christian church, Oakland, was elected first vice-president and chairman of the program committee; Professor W. H. Pugh of the University of California, a member of the Pilgrim Congregational church, Oakland, second vice-president and chairman of the education committee; Seth Harvey of the Friends' church, Berkeley, reading secretary; Charles R. Bennett of the First Presbyterian church, Alameda, corresponding secretary, and Robert Joyner of Shattuck-Avenue Methodist church, treasurer.

The constitution provides for an executive committee which shall consist of the officers of the federation and of the president and one delegate from each organized adult Bible class in the county and which shall hold monthly meetings. All members of affiliating organized adult Bible classes are members of the association and privileged to take part in the meetings of the federation. Regular meetings will be held quarterly.

J. W. Henderson, of San Francisco, addressed the meeting last evening and announced that a meeting of Sunday school workers would be held in Oakland early in June in preparation for the international convention of June 20-27, to be held in San Francisco.

ORDERS AGENT TO SELL

COAL TO U. S. SHIP

SEATTLE, Wash., May 18.—J. H. Young, president of the Alaska Steamship Company, yesterday cabled to Agent Barry at Cordova, Alaska, instructing him to supply to the Cruiser Buffalo enough Canadian coal to enable her to steam to Sitka. The Buffalo, which is at Cordova, ran short of coal during a stormy cruise to the northern islands and came into port with her coal bunkers nearly empty. Owing to a scarcity of coal at Alaska ports the Guggenheim-Morgan agent at Cordova declined to sell fuel to the Buffalo unless such sale was approved by his superior officers.

SAN JOSE, May 18.—The San Jose U. S. M. C. A. building campaign fund today passed the half-way mark, the solicitors adding $10,025 to the total of subscriptions, making it $56,799 for the eight days' work.

PAPER REPORT GOES TO SENATE

Tariff Board Discovers Canada Makes the Product $5.35 Cheaper.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—President Taft has sent to the Senate the tariff board's full report of its investigation of the pulp and news print paper industry in the United States and Canada.

Summarized briefly, the report says a ton of newsprint paper is made in Canada for $5.35 less than it is made in the United States. The average Canadian cost is given as $27.53, and the average cost in the United States as $32.88. The duty under the present tariff is $3.75.

Several factors entering into the increased cost of manufacture in the United States are taken up exhaustively in the report. The principal increases are said to be due to one fact, that a ton of pulp wood costs twice as much in the United States as it does in Canada, and that many of the American mills have much older and much less efficient equipment than the Canadian mills.

COST IS COMPARED.

Taking all the items into consideration as the report enumerates them, the comparative cost follows:

The average cost of a ton of ground wood pulp in bulk at a mill in the United States is $14.53, and in Canada it is $9.56. The total cost of a ton of sulphite fibre in the United States is $31.93, in Canada it is $26.47.

The total materials entering into the manufacture of a ton of news print paper in Canada are shown as $16.89, and in the United States as $22.74. The labor cost of a ton of paper in the United States is shown to be $3.27 and in Canada $3.19. All other allowances for manufacturing costs in the United States are $6.87 and in Canada $7.46. Labor costs in all the items concerned run very closely alike.

One feature of the report shows that the cost of manufacturing news print paper in the United States varies widely. The lowest cost recorded is $24.50 a ton, the highest is $43. From this the tariff board strikes an average of $32.88.

WILL ADVERTISE FOR

GARBAGE HANDLING BIDS

Secretary James N. Nelson of the board of public works has been authorized to advertise for bids for handling the garbage of the city of Oakland for the coming fiscal year. According to the new law passed by the State Legislature at the last session it will be necessary to ship the garbage and refuse matter 20 miles out to sea, and the city will have to employ an inspector to see that the provisions of the law are fulfilled.

Chews the Way to Health

What are you doing to give your children sound and healthy teeth? Out of 11,374 children inspected by the Medical Inspector in the schools of Toronto nearly 3,000 cases of physical defects were found. Of these 2,027 were credited to decayed and imperfectly formed teeth. Sound teeth and good bones come from thoroughly chewing a food that is rich in the phosphates. You can't build them with mushy porridges, soggy pastries or sweetmeats. Shredded Whole Wheat contains all the necessary phosphates in a digestible form. You HAVE to chew

SHREDDED WHEAT

The crispness of the shreds compels thorough chewing and a thorough mixing with saliva, which is the first process in digestion.

Shredded Wheat Biscuit every morning for breakfast, served with milk or cream, will build sturdy, robust youngsters and is a preventive of stomach and bowel disorders so common to children. Being ready-cooked and ready-to-serve it is so easy to prepare a nourishing meal with it in combination with fresh or preserved fruits—a meal that is deliciously satisfying to grown-ups as well as youngsters. FIRST OFFICER PLEADS GUILTY

J. A. Johnson Shoulders Blame for Accident on the Bay.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—First Officer J. A. Johnson of the ferry boat Berkeley, before Inspectors Bulger and Bolles yesterday, pleaded guilty to the charge of negligence in crossing the bow of the ferry steamer Bay City, which resulted in a collision on the bay on the evening of April 5.

Captain Rogers, in command of the Bay City, had pleaded not guilty on Monday, and the case has been taken under advisement by the steamboat inspectors.

First officer Johnson told the inspectors yesterday that he had consulted his attorney, and had been advised to plead guilty to a violation of rule 7 of the pilot rules.

This distinct request that when two steamers are approaching each other at right angles, so as to involve risk of collision, the steamer which has the other on her port side shall hold her course, while the other shall keep out of her way.

S. F. MERCHANTS IN MARYSVILLE

First Day of Excursion Proves One of Pleasure for Visitors.

MARYSVILLE, May 18.—The members of the excursion party of the San Francisco Merchants' Association arrived in Marysville yesterday at 2 o'clock after visiting Oroville in the morning. All are enthusiastic over the trip so far, as everything has taken place according to the program announced. On account of threatening weather the guest were not taken on any long trips into Yuba and Sutter counties, as had been planned, but during the afternoon called at all the principal business houses and got acquainted with the merchants. Last night they were entertained at an informal smoker in the new Elk's home. No program of speeches had been planned, the visitors being taken in charge by members of the local chamber of commerce and introduced around during the evening.

Special interest was manifested by the excursionists in the operations of the gold dredgers here. Many of the visitors for the first time boarded one of these huge gold boats and saw the method of operation. An especially interesting feature of the trip was the visit first to the dredger, where the ground was being mined, second to the rock crushing plant where the tailings are being crushed and the ground thus leveled, and third to places near Oroville where the leveled dredged land is being successfully reclaimed for horticulture. The big plant of the Truckee Lumber Company was also visited.

YOUTHS CONFESS TO LOOTING 'PHONE BOXES

VALLEJO, May 18.—E. A. Hearn and Henry Thomas of San Francisco, age 21 and 18 respectively, are in jail in this city, these boys confessing to looting more than two dozen telephone booths in the various bay cities in the last six months. The boys admitted to Chief of Police Stanford that they are wanted by the authorities in San Francisco for three robberies, in Oakland for three, in Sacramento for four, in Alameda for three, in Santa Rosa for four and single cases in Martinez, Chico, Woodland and Benning. When arrested both were dressed in the height of fashion, and might easily pass for college students. They usually found employment in hotels as bell boys.

PEPITO ARRIOLA TO SHOW TALENT

Thirteen-Year-Old Pianist Will Be Heard in Notable Program.

Pepito Arriola, a Spanish lad of 13, whose genius has never been equaled since the days of Mozart and who is again creating a veritable sensation in San Francisco by his masterly interpretations of the world's greatest piano compositions, will give a program at Ye Liberty Playhouse tomorrow afternoon at 8:30.

Pepito does not play like a wonder child; he plays with a depth of understanding and feeling that is simply marvelous in one of his tender years. He plays as if he had analyzed every sentiment and idea of the composers he interprets. It is almost uncanny, but always beautiful.

The program will include Beethoven's "Sonata Appassionata," a group of important Chopin works, among which will be the "Polonaise Militaire," "Valse" Op. 34, No. 1, "Three Preludes" and a "Nocturne." Last's transcription of Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song," a "Prelude and Nocturne" for left hand alone by Scriabine and Rubinstein's entrancing "Valse Caprice."

Seats are to be secured at Ye Liberty box office until the hour of the concert. Mary Garden and her splendid company appear at Ye Liberty next Tuesday night, May 23, closing the memorable musical season of 1910-11.

Our Agencies Dot the Earth

Schlitz was brewed first in a hut over sixty years ago. Now our output exceeds a million barrels a year. Our agencies dot the earth.

More and more people every year are demanding Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles.

In our brewery we spend more on purity—in time—in skill—in money—than on any other cost in our brewing.

We scald every tub, keg and barrel—every pipe and pump—every time we use it. We wash every bottle four times by machinery. Even the air, in which the beer is cooled, is filtered.

If you knew what we know about beer, you would say, "Schlitz—Schlitz in Brown Bottles."

Runs Amuck in New York City
When Reproved for Smoking.

Eight Wounded by Razor and Revolver; Two May Not Survive.

NEW YORK, May 18.—John Cain, a big negro, who ran amuck with a razor and revolver last night on the upper west side and killed two men and wounded eight, has admitted, the police say, that he is the man who killed Richard Ball, a newspaperman, on Broadway eleven years ago. Ball's slayer said that he killed his man for stepping on his toes. Cain went wild last night when a white passenger on the platform of an elevated train objected to his smoking.

Cain said that he was sentenced to fourteen years at Sing Sing for killing Ball and released a few weeks after serving between nine and ten years, his term being shortened for good behavior.

The two who died in the hospital late last night, covered with slashes from Cain's razor, were John Hall, of Weehawken, N. J., and Saxon Surrall, of Manhattan. Chauncey De Graff, a policeman, and August L. Cabman are in a serious condition and may die. Cain himself has a bullet through his lungs, but probably will get well.

Baptist Church Leader Says
Lorimer Case Is the Shame of the Upper House.

Corruption and Anarchy of the Bribe Are Productive of Anarchy of Bomb.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 18.—Rev. C. S. Gardiner, D. D., professor in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, in his annual sermon before the Southern Baptist convention here today, referred to the United States Senate as "that once respectable organ of government," and condemned the seating of Senator Lorimer.

"A thoughtful mind can hardly fail to bring into relation with one another certain incidents which have crowded themselves on the public attention in recent weeks," he continued.

"One is a judicial decision rendered by the Supreme Court of our greatest state in a case which, in its naked principle, involved the relative sacredness of property and human life; and the court declared that the sacredness of property was fundamental in the political constitution of our country.

POLITICAL CORRUPTION SCORED.
"Another is the action of the Senate of the United States, in which a majority of the Senators covered that once respectable organ of government with infamy and the nation with shame by voting to receive into their official comradship a man who owed his election to grossness and baseness of political corruption.

"And while the civilized world was standing aghast at the manifestation of the deadly virus at work in the veins of our political and economic organism, our hearts were almost frozen by reports of an alleged dynamiting conspiracy.

BRIBES AND BOMBS.
"Are not all these incidents vitally related? The fundamental sacredness of property rights as against human life; the unblushing effort of corporations, by purchasing public servants, to control the policy of the government in their own behalf; the desperate determination of maddened men to offset the anarchy of the bribe with the anarchy of the bomb—are they not all of a piece?"

RESIGNS RATHER THAN FACE CHARGE

Policeman Raymond H. Solomon Ends Trunk Episode.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—Rather than face a charge before the police commission, growing out of a trunk episode, Policeman Raymond H. Solomon, for several years a member of the department, and at present attached to the Potrero station, tendered his resignation this morning.

According to the evidence gathered by Captain Colby of Company I, a trunk given to an expressman by Mrs. Mary Harvey of 251 Connecticut street, was delivered in error to 609 Kansas street. This is near the cottage where the dynamite used by the Los Angeles Times cultists was stored, and the people, fearful of a possible bomb, notified Officer Solomon. He opened the trunk, discovered the owner, and it was duly sent to Mrs. Harvey.

She reported, however, that a lingerie jacket and two shiftwaists were missing. An investigation was made and on Solomon's being asked about the missing items, he promptly resigned on his captain's stating that he would prefer charges against him. Mrs. Harvey has declared that she will not prosecute.

HOLLANDER WELL PAID
AS PEACE MESSENGER

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Some interesting information relative to the peace mission of Dr. Jacob H. Hollander of Baltimore, who was sent by President Roosevelt to that republic to adjust its fiscal affairs, was disclosed yesterday by Huntington Wilson, assistant secretary of state, who appeared as a witness before the House committee on expenditures in the State department.

It was brought out that Dr. Hollander was paid for his services by both governments. He received in the aggregate about $140,000. Of this amount about $40,000 is estimated as paid by the United States. The remainder, which was given to Dr. Hollander partly in cash and partly in bonds, came from the government of San Domingo.

She declares in her complaint that while she was storing her machine in defendant firm's garage one of its employees, without her knowledge or consent, took her machine out and ran it into an electric car at Twentieth street and Broadway, demolishing it. She wants $500 for the damage done to the auto and $2000 for injury to her business caused by being deprived of her machine.

French, one of the proprietors of the French & Petersen stable at Twenty-fifth street and Broadway, was found guilty of misdemeanor libel yesterday by Police Judge George Samuels, and will be sentenced next Saturday morning. The penalty provided is a fine not exceeding $5000 or one year's imprisonment in the county jail. The charge was preferred by W. E. Castro, business agent for the teamsters' union.

The charge emanated from the action of French several months ago in circulating printed statements charging Castro with having forced him to pay Castro the sum of $40 per month for "protection" against the unions, with whom the stableman had been in difficulties for some time.

CALLS DISPUTE
'TEMPEST IN TEAPOT'

Justice White's 'Unreasonable' Harmless, Says A. H. Walker.

Declares Interpolation Not a Part of Standard Oil Opinion.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Albert H. Walker, author of "The History of the Sherman Law," discussing the Supreme Court's Standard Oil decision before the New York Finance Forum here last night, declared that the pronouncement of Chief Justice White, interpolating the word "unreasonable" into the Sherman law was not, and never will be, an opinion of the Supreme Court, but was simply an obiter dictum expressive of the chief justice's private view. The present excitement aroused concerning the chief justice's argument, he said, is but an unfortunate hysteria, due merely to a misunderstanding of the court's ruling.

"The surprising thing," he said, "in view of the tremendous excitement that has been raised pro and con, is that all this talk of Justice White's about 'unreasonableness' does not make the law of the land at all, but is simply what we lawyers call an obiter dictum, a discussion of a matter not before the court, entirely gratuitous. It was merely an assertion of Justice White of an opinion which has been holding for fifteen years and which did not represent the law at all.

"The law was laid down by the Supreme Court fifteen years ago in the Trusts-Missouri case, and in that case the Supreme Court announced definitely in a law-making decision—not in an obiter dictum—the reverse of this obiter dictum."

ENGLISH CORPORATION.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—"If the United States government pushes its suit against the Standard Oil Company to extremes, the Standard will claim that it is outside the jurisdiction of this country as an American-owned concern, being an English corporation. This claim is possible because a large block of the stock is in English hands, enough to make a declaration of English ownership valid."

This is the expression of one of the officials of the Standard Oil Company whose headquarters are in San Francisco. The man, who also set the record should not appear, saying it would be worth his position to him to have the source of the information published, claims that this sentiment is that held by the majority of the officials in the company's offices here.

"A large share of the ownership of the company is vested in the names of English capitalists. If this government makes things too difficult for the company by million-dollar fines and the like, it will unquestionably be to the great interest of the company to transfer the actual title of ownership to England, where the company is sure of much better treatment. It would be a good thing if the American public would think of this while howling so wildly against the corporation. The loss to this country of the ownership here is something to consider."

Woman Arrested While Riding
Breakbeam Arrives in Berkeley.

Wishes to Rejoin Her Children
Who Are at Present in Kansas.

BERKELEY, May 18.—Deserted by her husband, separated from her two small children, who are in Kansas, and denied admission to the home of her stepmother in West Berkeley, Mrs. Pauline Johnson returned penniless to Berkeley this morning from Martinez, where she had served a term in jail for vagrancy and then spent more than ten weeks in the county hospital because there was no other home to which she could go.

Unable to secure work yesterday in San Francisco to enable her to buy a ticket to Salina, Kansas, where her children are being kept by an aunt, Mrs. Johnson declared this morning that there seemed to be nothing left for her to do but to end her own life.

Her last attempt to obtain aid from her people, she said, would be made today.

"I shall try to find my stepfather, Henry Stelmets, who is janitor of the Albany School," said Mrs. Johnson. Perhaps he will help me to reach my children."

It was while making an effort to travel East on a breakbeam last February that Mrs. Johnson was taken into custody and sentenced to a short term in the Contra Costa county jail. She was arrested by a peace officer just over the county line, after climbing aboard a freight train, attired in men's clothing.

After leaving jail, she was given living accommodations at the county hospital, leaving there two days ago for San Francisco, where she hoped to obtain employment. Failing in her endeavor, she came to Berkeley this morning, seeking her stepfather.

She declared that she could not go to the home of her stepmother, Mrs. Celestine Stelmets, of 1731 Sixth street, divorced wife of Henry Stelmets.

"My stepmother threw me out of her home," declared Mrs. Johnson today. "I dare not go back there."

DESERTED BY HUSBAND.

After being deserted by her husband, George Johnson, a former soldier in the Philippines, Mrs. Johnson lived for a time with her stepmother in West Berkeley, but the women quarreled and the stepdaughter was ejected. Months before this her husband had taken the two children of the couple back to Kansas.

"George Johnson should be in the penitentiary of account of his treatment of me," she declared this morning, "and if he were in California I would put him there."

WHEAT GOES ON UPWARD SLANT SHOW STRENGTH

Bulls Encouraged by Scarcity at Liverpool and Dry Weather.

CHICAGO, May 18.—Dry weather today gave the price of wheat an upward slant. The bulls were encouraged further by a growing scarcity at Liverpool. It was also reported that the crop in India would not be much above the average in spite of the big promise early. Chiefly, however, the market was governed by the high temperature and the abnormal absence of rain. Opening figures were 3 1/2c to a like amount off. July started at 52 1/2c and closed unchanged to 1/4c down, and then rose to 53 1/2c.

The market afterward became weaker with the July 1st, a net loss of 1/4c. Fear of damage by heat and drought pushed wheat especially prominent on the buying side. July started 54 1/2c up, at 54 1/2c to 54 3/4c, touched 54 3/4c, and then advanced to 54 1/2c to 54 3/4c.

Provisions eased off in sympathy with a decline at the stock yards. First sales were 2 1/2c to 7 1/2c down, with July at 34 1/2c to 35 1/2c for hard and 37 1/2c for ribs.

Wheat—May, 54 1/2c; July, 58 1/2c; September, 57 1/2c; December, 56 1/2c; March, 55 1/2c; May, 54 1/2c; July, 58 1/2c; September, 57 1/2c; December, 56 1/2c; March, 55 1/2c.

Barley—May, 31.02 to 31.04. Clover—31.02 to 31.04.

Butter—May, 31.02 to 31.04. Eggs—31.02 to 31.04.

ACTIVE STOCKS SHOW STRENGTH

Industrials Lead the Advance With Railways Following in Early Hours.

NEW YORK, May 18.—Stocks were active and strong at the opening of the market today. The advance was made by almost all the active issues. Amalgamated Copper, Consolidated Gas and General Electric rose 1/2, 1/2 and 1/2, respectively. Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Missouri Pacific, St. Paul and American Smelting 1/2 and United States Steel 1/2.

Efforts were made to bring about a substantial advance by selling considerable amounts of stock after the opening. The price reaction was only a slight fraction and when pressure relaxed the market again continued on its upward slide. A Pacific rose 1/2, Southern Pacific 1/2, St. Paul 1/2 and Colorado Fuel and North American 1/2.

The rapid advance of stocks of the last two days led to heavy realising sales this morning, but the large amount of securities put on the market did not cause a pronounced break in prices. A large absorption of copper stocks occasioned a revival of the report of a merger and there was extensive buying of United States Steel which touched 51 1/2.

Gains of 1 to 2 points were registered in a considerable number of representative stocks, including Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, St. Paul, United States Steel, Amalgamated Copper and American Smelting.

There was a touch of weakness and there was a 2 point decline in Atlantic Coast Line and 1 1/2 in American Cotton Oil.

Further gains were made by a few specialties, particularly the low priced metal stocks, Colorado Fuel and North American, and National Lead getting up 2 1/2. Other stocks ruled slightly below their peak prices of the morning, profit-taking continuing on a liberal scale.

The market closed dull and steady. The buying power relaxed further in the final hour and this, together with the weight of earlier gains, resulted in general concessions. In no instance save Central Pacific, however, was the decline more than fractional.

Reading reached 150 1/2, Union Pacific 51 1/2, and Missouri Pacific, to above 48 1/2. Profit-taking during the day caused an average reaction of about half a point and the market became very dull.

CLEVER GRACE DE MAR MAKES FRIENDS AT BELL THEATER

Clever Grace de Mar at the Bell this week is another vaudeville "steal" from musical comedy.

She is making her first tour in the vaudeville and showing to vaudeville audiences the character work that made her the star of "A Knight for a Day" and one of Broadway's greatest favorites. Miss De Mar is gifted with a charming singing voice, has acquired a wardrobe no less than gorgeous and is possessed of a personality that "gets her over" from the start.

Even Trollope's competitors in the art ventriloquist will admit his pre-eminence. Of all of them he has been the most prolific producer of scenic ventriloquist acts and was, in fact, the originator of this line. He is at the Bell with his very latest act, "The Little Chameleon" at the Boston Road Inn, a production based upon the humorous happenings attendant upon a "breakdown" during a motor car trip. Trollope makes use of several mechanical manikins and the effects he gets with them are almost uncanny.

Robert Henry Hodge, with a company of excellent players, is a riot of fun with "Troubles of Bill Elithers Bachelor," a comedy farce written expressly to fit Hodge's abilities as a maker of fun. The story is of an elderly bachelor, a woman hater, who is besieged in a boarding house by three energetic females, including the landlady, all of them bent on leading him, or dragging him to the altar.

Moran and Moran offer one of those always popular dancing acts which, in this case, is made doubly attractive by the personal attractiveness of little Miss Moran and by her cleverness as a comedienne. Mr. Moran's eccentric dancing has brought him to more than ordinary fame and his acrobatic offerings are on a par with the rest of his performance.

Tom Ferree and Edith Mason are welcome homecomers in a delightful little skit which serves to give us the opportunity of again hearing them in repertoire.

The Hoefler Trio of Comedy Cyclists and clever Elsa Doring, the ragtime violinist, complete the bill.

MISSING SACRAMENTO NURSE COMES TO LIFE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.—The mysterious disappearance from Sacramento of Mrs. Margaret Prouty, a nurse, whose mother, Mrs. E. B. Gill of 1315 Fifth street, Sacramento, asked the police and newspapers to locate her daughter, is solved. Detectives Murphy and Conlon found Mrs. Prouty at a downtown hotel with Miss Irma Dennis, also a nurse. Mrs. Prouty declared that, a month ago, she had trouble with her husband and quietly left Sacramento in consequence. She is ill and is being cared for by Miss Dennis.

DEMAND KEEPS AUCTIONEER BUSY

Valuable Properties Sold at Different Sales Show a Healthy Market.

The auction sales of real estate, held at various times, is attracting a great deal of capital from all parts of the State. Oakland's future has no dark clouds, according to the opinion of outside capitalists. On last Friday the auction sale of desirable property located at 27th and Grove, which was conducted by J. A. Munro & Co., brought out several bidders, and shows the healthy condition of the market.

Mr. S. Livingston purchased this property for $13,800, which proved a fine investment to the buyer.

Other parcels of real estate sold at this auction were a house and lot on Twenty-seventh street to the French Bakeries Company of Oakland for $3500, and another parcel was a piece sold to Mrs. B. Gayle at 633 Twenty-seventh street for $3200.

Investors are watching with interest these auctions handled by Munro & Co., and property owners are beginning to appreciate that auctioning is a rapid way to dispose of property.

Mrs. Clare Urquhart, keeper of an infant shelter on Eighteenth street, was yesterday found guilty of the charge of ill-treating the two-year-old child of Mrs. Fannie Aulet before Judge Aaron Turner, sitting for Judge Samuels in the police court.

Mrs. Urquhart declared that the child's irritability of disposition caused her to punish the child with a hair brush. Taking the ground that she had been already sufficiently punished, Judge Turner suspended sentence pending the woman's future behavior.
